Dr. Glenda Glover, Ph.D., JD, CPA

Dr. Glenda Baskin Glover of Nashville, TN has served as President of Tennessee State University since 2013. She is the International President and CEO of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., the oldest Greek-letter organization established by African-American college women.

A native of Memphis, TN, the daughter of a civil rights activist and from a family immersed in the Movement, she determined early that education and equal justice were important for all people of color.

Dr. Glover majored in mathematics at Tennessee State University. After graduating with honor with a Bachelor of Science degree, she pursued the Master of Business Administration at Clark Atlanta University. She then completed her doctorate in business from George Washington University, and later completed her law degree from Georgetown University. She is a certified public accountant, an attorney, and is one of two African American women to hold the Ph.D.-CPA-JD combination in the nation.

Dr. Glover was formerly the Dean of the College of Business at Jackson State University in Jackson, Miss., where she led the College of Business throughout the accreditation process, and spearheaded the implementation of the nation's first Ph.D. in Business at an HBCU.

Prior to joining Jackson State University, Dr. Glover served as Chairperson of the Department of Accounting at Howard University, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of an engineering firm, a tax manager at a major public utility company, and an accountant with a Big-Four CPA firm.

Dr. Glover is the author of more than one hundred articles and papers, and is regarded as one of the nation's experts on corporate governance. She is married to Charles Glover, and they have two adult children, Attorney Candace Glover and Dr. Charles Glover II.
