What to do about wellness after 50

Reaching one's fiftieth birthday in optimal health is an accomplishment to be proud of. The hard work required to be healthy in midlife includes adhering to a nutritious diet and exercising regularly. Once individuals cross the threshold and enter their 50s, they can look to some additional strategies to maintain their physical and mental well-being for decades to come.

~ Get a pet. Many people 50 and older qualify as "empty nesters," a term applied to adults whose children have grown up and moved out of their homes. Some empty nesters experience a phenomenon known as "empty nest syndrome," which the Mayo Clinic notes can be marked by feelings of sadness or loss. Pets can help people over 50 with no children at home overcome feelings linked to empty nest syndrome. In 2018, the University of Michigan National Poll on Healthy Aging found that 86 percent of pet owners felt their pets make them feel loved while 73 percent said their pets provided a sense of purpose. Pets also can ensure individuals over 50 stay physically active and provide opportunities to connect with other people.

~ Prioritize learning. Whether it's taking music lessons, going back to school or mastering a new hobby, learning has a profound effect on aging brains. For example, a 2013 study published in the journal Psychological Science found that memory function is improved by engagement in demanding everyday tasks. That study reported that people who learned new skills experienced greater memory improvement than people who only socialized or participated in activities that were not as cognitively engaging.

~ Make an effort to improve balance. Various factors contribute to a decline in balance as adults age. For example, a decline in muscle mass that begins when people are in their 30s is a normal part of aging. Over time, that natural decline affects strength and agility. Balance exercises can be a valuable component of a fitness regimen that help individuals reduce their risk for falling as they advance through their 50s and into their 60s and 70s. That's a significant benefit, as the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reports that one out of every three adults age 65 and older experiences a fall each year, and as many as 30 percent of those falls lead to serious injury.

~ Embrace your inner socialite. Socialization is important for people of all ages, including individuals 50 and over. A 2017 study from researchers at Michigan State found that valuing friendships was a strong predictor of health and happiness among older adults. Opportunities to socialize with friends may increase as people navigate their 50s and children move out or become more independent. Individuals can take advantage of opportunities to socialize whenever possible. Various strategies can help people maintain mental and physical wellness as they make their way through their 50s and beyond.

Blessings

Silencing Weekend Hunger

Over 67% of children in Citrus County qualify for the free/reduced breakfast and lunch program in our public schools. Many of these children face the weekend not knowing where their next meal will come from. Citrus County Blessings is our local weekend meal program for children in need. We currently serve all 22 public schools, 4 private schools and 2 pre-schools, reaching over 1900 children each weekend and over holiday breaks. Blessings send home nonperishable easy to open items for the children in the program. This includes any child in the household over the age of one even if they aren't of school age. We understand that hunger doesn't take a vacation.

Getting to know the Declaration of Independence

The Declaration of Independence is a formal document that served as the signatory colonies' statement that they were now "free and independent States." It is a vital document in American history.

On July 1, 1776, delegates from the original 13 colonies, making up the Second Continental Congress, met in Philadelphia to vote on Richard Henry Lee's motion for independence. After some deliberation, ultimately 12 of the 13 delegates voted in favor. In recognition of those 12 delegates, here are 12 facts regarding the Declaration of Independence.

1. The drafted document was officially adopted on July 4, 1776, two days after freedom from Britain was approved. However, most delegates signed the document on August 2, 1776, while others signed on a later date. John Dickinson and Robert R. Livingston never signed the Declaration of Independence.
 2. John Dunlap was the official printer of Congress at the time. He worked all night and into the morning of July 5 to produce the large, single-sided sheet, known as a broadside. About 200 copies of Dunlap's broadside were made.
 3. The University of Virginia owns two copies of a rare early printing of the Declaration. It is on display in the Albert and Shirley Small Special Collections Library. It is believed the copy once belonged to George Washington.
 4. Benjamin Franklin, George Read, Roger Sherman, Robert Morris, George Clymer, and James Wilson signed both the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution.
 5. The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution were hidden at Fort Knox during World War II, two weeks after Pearl Harbor was attacked.
 6. Despite what the movie "National Treasure" will have one believe, the message on the back of the document is visible and reads "Original Declaration of Independence dated 4th July 1776."
 7. Richard Stockton, a lawyer from New Jersey, was a signer of the Declaration who later recanted his support of the American revolution. He subsequently swore his allegiance to King George III after being captured by the British.
 8. In 1989, an original Dunlap Broadside was found hidden behind a picture a Philadelphia man bought at a flea market for $4. It later sold for $8.1 million. Ultimately, 26 copies of the original prints have been found.
 9. The United States celebrates Independence Day on July 4th, even though independence was accepted on July 2nd.
 10. Early on, not everyone in America was supportive of the Declaration of Independence. Partisan politics led to discord. Federalist John Adams was feuding with Republicans and Thomas Jefferson. The anniversary date of the signing was not widely celebrated until the Federalists were no longer involved in politics.
 11. The one-year anniversary of Independence Day and the celebration of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence slipped the minds of Congress in 1777. When they remembered it was July 3rd, they planned a last-minute celebration on July 4th, and each year thereafter.
 12. John Trumbull's painting "Declaration of Independence," which was made into a lithograph replica by Ralph Trembly, hangs in the Rotunda of the U.S. Capitol. It is a fictional depiction of the five-man drafting committee presenting their draft to Congress, and not the signing. The painting shows 42 of the 56 signees, since Trumbull couldn't get likenesses of all involved. The men featured in the painting were never all in the room at the same time during the Declaration's debate and signing.
- The Declaration of Independence is a key document in American history, and its words are celebrated each Independence Day.

Creamy coleslaw gets a healthy boost

Coleslaw is a staple of backyard cookouts and picnics. Coleslaw is considered a Dutch food, though there are mentions of a similar cabbage dish served in Ancient Rome. The word coleslaw is derived from the Dutch term "koolsla," meaning "cabbage salad." That's not surprising, as the slaw is made primarily of shredded cabbage with a salad dressing or other condiment, usually vinaigrette or mayonnaise.

Today coleslaw can be found prepackaged at supermarkets, sold by the pound behind the deli counter, or it can be made at home with a few simple ingredients. It's so versatile that it pairs well with anything from country cooking to ethnic delicacies. Those looking to lighten up coleslaw so it's a little more nutritious can enjoy "Sweet Country Coleslaw," courtesy of "Favorite Family Recipes: 43 Dishes for a Healthy Soul" (Publications International, Ltd.) by the American Heart Association.

Sweet Country Coleslaw

Serves 4

- 2 TABLESPOONS FAT-FREE SOUR CREAM
- 1 TABLESPOON SUGAR
- 1 TEASPOON SUGAR
- 1 TABLESPOON LIGHT MAYONNAISE
- 1 TEASPOON CIDER VINEGAR
- 1/4 TEASPOON CELERY SEEDS (OPTIONAL)
- 1/8 TEASPOON SALT
- 1/8 TEASPOON PEPPER
- 4 CUPS PACKAGED, SHREDDED CABBAGE AND CARROT MIX

1. In a medium bowl, whisk together all the ingredients except the cabbage and carrot.
2. Stir in the cabbage and carrot mix until well coated. The mixture will be very thick. Let stand for 15 minutes before serving. The coleslaw will shrink in volume by about half during the standing time.

Guess Who?

I am a pop singer born in Texas on July 22, 1992. I grew up watching my mother rehearse for theater productions. I rose to fame on a Disney show, and later formed a band and released hit albums before going solo.

Impress guests with homemade burgers this Fourth of July

Backyard barbecues are a staple of summertime. In fact, many Fourth of July celebrations just wouldn't feel right without hamburgers and hot dogs cooking over an open flame in the backyard.

Burgers may not qualify as fancy fare, but they're perfect for Independence Day celebrations. This year, party hosts can add a little something extra to their barbecues by whipping up some homemade hamburgers. This recipe for "Mushroom and Swiss Burgers with Bacon and Aioli" from "The Essential Kamado Grill Cookbook" (Rockridge Press) by Will Budiaman is sure to make your Fourth of July festivities more flavorful.

Mushroom and Swiss Burgers with Bacon and Aioli (Serves 4)

- 8 bacon slices
- 8 ounces cremini mushrooms, sliced
- Kosher salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 2 pounds ground beef
- 4 Swiss cheese slices
- 4 kaiser rolls, split
- 1/2 cup aioli (see below)

1. Prepare the grill for direct grilling at 500 F, then preheat a 10-inch cast iron skillet on the grate with the lid closed.
2. Put the bacon in the skillet. Close the lid and cook for 1 to 2 minutes or until browned and crispy around the edges. Transfer to a plate.
3. Add the mushrooms to the skillet. Close the lid and cook, stirring once, for 7 to 9 minutes or until browned. Transfer to a plate. Season with salt and pepper.
4. Meanwhile, in a large bowl, season the beef with pepper and 4 teaspoons of salt. Using your hands, mix until just incorporated; form into four 1-inch-thick patties with a slight dimple in the center.
5. Put the burgers on the grate. Close the lid and cook, flipping halfway through, for 8 to 10 minutes total for medium, or until an instant-read thermometer inserted into the center registers 135 F. (If using store-bought ground beef, always cook it to 160 F, or well done.) In the last minute of cooking, top the patties with the cheese to melt and place the rolls cut-side down on the grate to toast.
6. Spread the aioli on the buns and assemble the burgers, dividing the bacon and mushrooms between them. Serve immediately.

Aioli (Makes 1 1/4 cups)

- 1 large egg
- 1 cup vegetable oil
- 2 garlic cloves, peeled
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher salt

1. Put the egg in the bowl of a small food processor. Blend until beaten.
2. With the machine running, slowly stream in the oil through the feed tube until emulsified (the mixture thickens).
3. Blend in the garlic and salt.
4. Transfer to an airtight container, refrigerate, and use within 5 days.

Troubleshooting: Is your aioli just not coming together, staying thin and runny instead of thickening? You may be streaming in your oil too quickly. But don't throw out the batch. Instead, pour it into a small cup or bowl, wash and dry the bowl and blade of the food processor, and start again with a fresh egg. Use the previous batch as your "oil."

ACCORDING TO THE UNITED STATES CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION, MORE THAN 15,000 PEOPLE WERE TREATED FOR FIREWORKS INJURIES IN EMERGENCY ROOMS IN 2020. IN ADDITION, INJURIES AND DEATHS FROM FIREWORKS INCREASED BY 50 PERCENT BETWEEN 2019 AND 2020. FORTY-FOUR PERCENT OF THOSE INJURIES WERE BURNS, 30 PERCENT INVOLVED THE HANDS AND FINGERS AND 22 PERCENT AFFECTED THE HEAD, FACE AND EARS. USCPSC DATA ALSO INDICATED THAT 15 PERCENT OF INJURIES AFFECTED THE EYES. THE MAJORITY OF INJURIES (66 PERCENT) OCCURRED AROUND THE JULY 4TH HOLIDAY, BUT IT'S IMPORTANT THAT INDIVIDUALS EXERCISE CAUTION WHENEVER THEY CELEBRATE WITH FIREWORKS. Happy
Birthday
Gracie May
Est.
July 15, 21

Hey guys! Please help me in wishing my little sister Gracie May a VERY HAPPY FIRST BIRTHDAY! It is no surprise that she was born in the month of July, as she is quite the little firecracker. When she bullies me, mom always reminds me, you don't mess with those pound girls, they know how to fight. See while both Gracie and I are rescue pups, Gracie has a very different story than I do.

Gracie was a pound girl, but in looking at her file from when we adopted her that may not have always been the case. She has veterinarian records that show she started getting seen at 3 months old. The records show that her visits were timely, and she was being seen for regular things like puppy shots, heartworm meds, and was even spayed while with her first owner. When 2022 came around her life changed.

January 25, 2022, Gracie May became a ward of Sumter County Animal Shelter. Her next record shows that she was transferred to Citrus County Animal Shelter February 9, 2022, as the first shelter she was at was overcrowded. Mom first saw Gracie on Facebook February 10th, and started sharing her picture on the Peddler's Post business page hoping she would get a home. We even went by the shelter to meet Gracie, who was then going by Cammie Lee. The pound was too much excitement for me. There were so many dogs' barking from inside all these cages as we walked to the play area to meet Cammie. I was way over stimulated in that environment, so unfortunately, we went home without her that day. Mom kept continuing to think about this sweet girl and was so excited to see that she was adopted out on February 19th and went home with her now second family.

That good news only lasted for a short time as she was returned to Sumter County Animal Shelter as an owner surrender for the second time on March 6th. On March 17th, my birthday, she was transferred back to Citrus County Animal Services. On March 20th Cammie Lee was back up on the Citrus Animal Shelter Page for adoption. It broke mom's heart to think about this little lady being shuffled around so much. By the end of the week, she still had not been adopted, so we decided to try again. This time mom picked Gracie up and brought her home for a sleepover. This environment was a much better place for a meeting, and we hit it off. We decided to make her an official part of the Peddler's Pup Pack on April 6th. That is the day we also promised her that she would never be an owner surrender ever again.

Gracie is high maintenance girl. Just like humans, our past can have an impact on who we are today. Mom calls Gracie "Crazy Lady" cause she is a "Nervous Nelly" of sorts. Gracie also suffers with severe separation anxiety. We are working with her to build the trust that she has a stable home and a family that loves her now. While mom has gotten frustrated with the loss of her shoes and even some of the decorations on the wall (I meant firecracker when I said it people), Gracie has made great strides at learning to accept love and thrives on routine. Her favourite routine is Peanut Butter Kong's in the Morning. Her favorite activity is lizard hunting. She has a smile that is illuminating, and she is my best friend. Did I mention she is super funny? On the next page you will find an article about the signs of separation anxiety. Sometimes what people think is bad behaviour is pure terror for the pet. Awareness is important, so you can approach the situation with understanding and correct action. Until next week folks!

SIGNS OF SEPARATION ANXIETY IN DOGS

DOGS ARE LOYAL AND BELOVED COMPANIONS THAT MAKE GREAT HOUSEHOLD PETS. WHEN LEAVING FOR WORK IN THE MORNING, DOG OWNERS MAY LAMENT THAT THEY CAN'T TAKE THEIR FURRY FRIENDS WITH THEM. BUT IT TURNS OUT THOSE DOGS MIGHT BE EVEN MORE UPSET THAT THEY CAN'T FOLLOW THEIR OWNERS OUT THE DOOR EACH MORNING.

SEPARATION ANXIETY IS A SIGNIFICANT ISSUE THAT CAN AFFECT ANY BREED OF DOG. ACCORDING TO THE ASPCA, SEPARATION ANXIETY IS TRIGGERED WHEN DOGS BECOME UPSET BECAUSE THEY'VE BEEN SEPARATED FROM THEIR GUARDIANS, SUCH AS IN THE MORNING WHEN OWNERS LEAVE FOR WORK. SEPARATION ANXIETY IS A VERY DIFFICULT PROBLEM FOR DOGS, CREATING A SENSE OF DISTRESS THAT CAN PAVE THE WAY FOR DESTRUCTIVE AND POTENTIALLY HARMFUL BEHAVIORS. DOG OWNERS MAY WONDER WHAT THEY CAN DO TO SOOTHE THEIR DOGS' ANXIETY SO THEY CAN BE LEFT ALONE WITHOUT EXPERIENCING THE FEAR OR DISTRESS ASSOCIATED WITH SEPARATION ANXIETY. LEARNING TO RECOGNIZE THE SYMPTOMS OF SEPARATION ANXIETY IS A GREAT FIRST STEP IN THAT HEALING PROCESS.

~ URINATING AND DEFECATING: SOME DOGS URINATE OR DEFECATE WHEN LEFT ALONE, EVEN IF THEY'RE POTTY TRAINED. THIS IS A SIGN OF SEPARATION ANXIETY. THE ASPCA NOTES THAT DOGS THAT URINATE OR DEFECATE IN THE PRESENCE OF THEIR OWNERS ARE PROBABLY NOT SUFFERING FROM SEPARATION ANXIETY BUT A DIFFERENT ISSUE, AND SUCH BEHAVIOR SHOULD BE DISCUSSED WITH A VETERINARIAN.

~ BARKING AND HOWLING: DOGS EXPERIENCING SEPARATION ANXIETY MAY PERSISTENTLY BARK OR HOWL WHEN SEPARATED FROM THEIR GUARDIANS. NEIGHBORS MAY COMPLAIN THAT DOGS CONTINUOUSLY BARK THROUGHOUT THE DAY, WHICH CAN SIGNAL TO OWNERS THAT THEIR DOGS ARE EXPERIENCING SEPARATION ANXIETY. THE ASPCA NOTES THAT BARKING OR HOWLING IS TYPICALLY ONLY TRIGGERED BY BEING LEFT ALONE.

~ DESTRUCTIVE BEHAVIORS: DESTRUCTIVE BEHAVIORS WHEN LEFT ALONE, SUCH AS CHEWING ON OBJECTS, DOOR FRAMES OR WINDOW SILLS, IS A TELLTALE SIGN OF SEPARATION ANXIETY. SOME DOGS WILL DIG AT DOORS AND DOORWAYS, PERHAPS IN AN ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE THE HOME AND FOLLOW THEIR GUARDIANS OUT THE DOOR, OR DESTROY HOUSEHOLD OBJECTS, INCLUDING FURNITURE. THESE DESTRUCTIVE BEHAVIORS NOT ONLY AGGRAVATE OWNERS, BUT THEY ALSO POSE A SIGNIFICANT INJURY RISK TO DOGS. DOG OWNERS TYPICALLY DO NOT WITNESS THE DESTRUCTIVE BEHAVIOR, WHICH CAN CAUSE INJURIES LIKE BROKEN TEETH, CUT AND SCRAPED PAWS AND DAMAGED NAILS.

~ COPROPHAGIA: SOME DOGS DEFECATE AND THEN CONSUME ALL OR SOME OF THEIR EXCREMENT WHEN LEFT ALONE. THIS IS ALL CALLED COPROPHAGIA AND LIKELY WON'T OCCUR WHEN OWNERS ARE PRESENT.

DOGS THAT ACT UP WHEN OWNERS LEAVE HOME AREN'T BEING DESTRUCTIVE FOR THE SAKE OF BEING DISRUPTIVE. IN FACT, THESE DOGS ARE OFTEN SUFFERING FROM SEPARATION ANXIETY, THE RECOGNITION OF WHICH CAN BE THE FIRST STEP TOWARD HELPING DOGS OVERCOME THIS TROUBLING CONDITION.
