Scholarship Application:

We'd like to understand more about your family and how the Resilience In Action Scholarship can make a difference:

1. How do you envision your child and family benefiting from participating in the Resilient Families Program?

2. Are there any specific challenges your child or family is currently facing that the program could address?

3. How would receiving the Resilience In Action Scholarship positively impact your family's financial situation?

4. How do you plan to contribute to the Up Giving Village community, whether through volunteering or other means?

Guidelines and Eligibility:

1. The Resilience In Action Scholarship supports parents and guardians who face financial constraints and are unable to cover the membership and Parents Night Out fees of the Resilient Families Program.
2. Applicants must demonstrate a genuine need for financial assistance.
3. Scholarship recipients are encouraged to actively engage in Resilient Families Program activities and contribute positively to the community.
4. The scholarship covers discounted membership rates and/or Parents Night Out fees, based on available funds.
5. Scholarship applications will be thoughtfully reviewed by the Up Giving Village scholarship committee and subject to approval by the Board of Directors.
