

Craigston Castle

Private Dining & Hospitality

In Partnership with ADR Hospitality Group

FULLY CATERED & MANAGED HOSPITALITY

The Craigston Experience

Country house hospitality, personally arranged

At Craigston Castle, ADR Hospitality Group brings together private dining, traditional service, concierge arrangements and Scottish experiences. Each occasion is shaped around your guests, with the warmth, discretion and personal attention of country house hospitality.

ADR Hospitality Group manages and coordinates the fully catered experience, bringing dining, staffing and guest arrangements together as a complete programme tailored to your group.

Dining, staffing and additional services form part of bespoke arrangements, with inclusions agreed for each booking.

Fully Catered & Managed Hospitality

The luxury of a private Scottish castle, with every detail thoughtfully arranged.

Experience the pleasure of traditional Scottish country house hospitality, with the comfort and convenience of a fully catered and professionally managed experience.

At Craigston Castle, ADR Hospitality Group brings together private chefs, carefully prepared dining, experienced hospitality staff and personalised guest services to create an experience tailored to each individual group.

From leisurely breakfasts and elegant private dinners to afternoon tea and bespoke Scottish experiences, every element can be thoughtfully coordinated around your preferences. Traditional private butler service is also available as an optional, separately charged enhancement.

Our team can also arrange private transfers, excursions, activities and entertainment, allowing guests to relax and enjoy their time at Craigston Castle.

Dining, staffing and additional services are tailored to the requirements of each booking, with the agreed inclusions confirmed as part of the bespoke hospitality arrangements.
