"The Fruits of Revival"
11:00am - 11:45am

Objective:

To examine the outcomes of revival as seen in the Bible and to explore how true revival brings transformation, renewed purpose, and lasting change.

Scripture Focus:

- Acts 2:1-4, 14-21 – The Revival at Pentecost
- Jonah 3:1-10 – The Revival in Nineveh
- Habakkuk 3:2 – A Prayer for Renewal

Discussion Points:

1. The Power of the Holy Spirit: How did the Holy Spirit spark the revival at Pentecost? What role does the Holy Spirit play in revival today?
2. Revival Brings Change: Look at the transformation in Nineveh after Jonah's message. Discuss how revival led to repentance and change.
3. Sustaining Revival: What can we do to sustain the momentum of revival once it begins? How can we ensure that the changes brought about by revival are lasting?
4. Revival in Our Context: What would true revival look like in our church or community today?

Group Discussion:

Share testimonies or stories of revival that have impacted you or others you know.

Commitment Exercise:

Write a personal commitment to seeking and sustaining revival in your own life and share it with a prayer partner.

Closing Prayer:
