Becky Padilla, Colorado Springs, CO

Originally from California's Central Valley, Becky ventured to New Mexico at 21 and found not only a new home but also the love of her life. Celebrating 24 years of marriage this June, they feel blessed with two incredible children, aged 21 and 23, who bring boundless joy to their lives. "Family is my world and our shared passion for riding, roping and rodeo binds us together. Our kids are natural talents and often rake in winnings, while my husband and I enjoy the thrill of the sport, even if our own successes aren't as frequent!"

For the past 11 years, Becky has called the breathtaking landscapes of Colorado home, where her family has grown to include five horses, eleven steers, three beloved dogs and a flock of 12 chickens.

Outside of her exhilarating rodeo adventures, Becky has been part of MMS for over a year, where she brings the same dedication and enthusiasm to her work as she does to her family and passions.

Chad Michaud, Portland, ME

Born and raised in the picturesque state of Maine, Chad discovered his passion for trucking at a young age, while working on a potato farm and being around trucks.

Over the course of 25 years, he honed his skills as a CDL truck driver, navigating highways and byways with precision and dedication. In 2022, Chad embarked on a new professional chapter, bringing his wealth of experience to Mail Management Services.

Outside of his career, Chad finds true fulfillment in his role as a devoted husband to his beloved wife Christina, celebrating a decade of love and partnership. Chad is a proud father of four beautiful children: Charlotte (8), twins Samuel and Macie (15) and Maddison (20).

When not behind the wheel or spending cherished moments with his family, Chad indulges in his diverse interests, from camping adventures in Maine's lush wilderness to exhilarating ATV rides through rugged terrain. A true aficionado of mechanical craftsmanship, he also finds solace and joy in the meticulous art of restoring John Deere tractors, each project adding to his cherished collection and preserving a piece of agricultural heritage.

University of Nebraska-Lincoln. With over three decades of experience as an educator, Jerry's expertise spans secondary and college-level mathematics, where he also served as an athletic director and physical education instructor.

Retiring from the education sector in 2015, Jerry embraced a new chapter by joining Mail Management Services in 2017. A lifelong sports enthusiast, he actively engages in sand volleyball and pickleball, though his passion for golf often takes a back seat due to his demanding six-day work weeks.

In addition to his professional and sporting pursuits, Jerry maintains a keen interest in fitness and nutrition. He also treasures his role as a father to two children and a grandfather to six grandchildren, considering them the highlights of his life.

Luke Brown, Portland, ME

Luke is a proud Maine native whose life has been deeply intertwined with trucking mail.

Following in the footsteps of his father, who hauled mail for a local contractor, Luke's journey in the industry began with a sense of familial legacy and purpose. After serving in the U.S. military and experiencing deployment in Afghanistan, Luke transitioned to the Maine National Guard to care for his ailing father, a decision that ultimately led him to pursue his trucking license.

Since 2020, Luke has been dedicated to his role as a mail truck driver, navigating routes with precision and commitment. He finds fulfillment in the rhythm of the road and the opportunity to provide essential services to his community. Outside of work, Luke cherishes moments with his wife of seven years and their two spirited sons, Jayden and Lincoln. Together, they create cherished memories that balance the demands of career and family life.

With a steadfast dedication to his loved ones and a passion for his profession, Luke exemplifies resilience, compassion and the enduring spirit of the American trucker.

Robin Freeman, San Antonio, TX

Robin, who hails from San Antonio, Texas, has a passion for family, adventure and leadership. Married to his wife Kelly for the past seven years and together for 12, they cherish spending time with their blended family of five boys and nine grandchildren, ranging from 19 months to 13 years old.

With close to 40 years of management experience, Robin has built a career marked by notable achievements. From ascending the ranks at Home Depot to managing a thriving fleet washing business, he has demonstrated a keen ability to lead and inspire others.

Currently, Robin finds fulfillment in his role at MMS where he plays a pivotal role in starting up new contracts, training drivers and site managers and gaining valuable insights into the workings of the Postal Service.

Outside of work, Robin enjoys exploring the open road on his motorcycle, embarking on spontaneous road trips with Kelly and indulging in his favorite pastimes of golfing, fishing and hunting.
