

STACY FOX

Stacy Fox lives in Marietta, GA and has 20+ years of experience in communications, public relations, government affairs, marketing, television broadcasting, news assignments management and large-scale nonprofit pledge campaign management. She is currently the Director of Communications for The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, where she manages all aspects of communications, including media relations, reputation management, and corporate responsibility. She has been involved in the dog fancy since 1989 when, as an “adult,” she purchased her first dog, an Italian Greyhound named Caruso. She quickly discovered that this sweet little dog needed obedience training. He achieved a CD title, but his best performance was as a therapy dog visiting children at Shriner’s Hospital in San Francisco and several nursing care facilities. After their first basic obedience class and Novice A blue ribbon, she became hooked on dog sports.

Stacy is currently a Board Member for the Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club of Greater Atlanta and have been a two-time Specialty Show Chair. Stacy has had a few dogs over the years and has achieved in many areas of competition. She is enamored with the Boykin breed and their biddability, drive, tenacity and cheery disposition! Her first Boykin Spaniel, Colette’s Moonshine Mason Jar CGC, TKN is well on his way in AKC competitions. She plans to compete in AKC Conformation, Obedience, Rally, Nose Work, Agility, and Dock Diving and in UKC Conformation and performance events and NACSW. She is very interested in learning more about AKC and HRC hunt tests. Stacy is currently a member of the 2025 BSCBAA National Specialty Team.

COLLIN CONRAD

Collin Conrad is currently employed by UT Health as an Assistant Professor of Cardiovascular and Thoracic Anesthesiology. Collin and his wife, Sarah and their three daughters Arden (8), Elaine (5), and Juliet (3) currently have two dogs: a sweet old Catahoula named Riley and a spunky 2-year-old Boykin Spaniel named Ginny. Collin and Sarah in the past couple of years have been very involved in many of the BSCBAA sponsored fundraisers and events. Collin has volunteered as one of the committee members for the 2025 National Specialty Hunt Test. He will be helping host the Hunt Test at The Circle J Ranch, which is his family's nearly 1000-acre working cattle ranch in Hempstead, TX. He and his family came to Texas about three years ago to finish training and ultimately work in the Texas Medical Center where he is currently employed. Collin is looking forward to being a contributing Board member of the BSCBAA.

GINGER HURLEY

Ginger Hurley, Realtor, Boykin Breeder & Trainer, BSCBAA Member and volunteer since 2003, Former Board Member and Previous 2-term President as well as Past Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. Currently Co-Chair of the Show Committee and the Education and Standard (E&S) Committee, Chair of the 2025 National Specialty (NS) Team, Fundraiser Co-Chair, Chair of the 2025 NS Hunt Test. As Chair of the Breed Standard Committee, she was responsible for moving the revised Breed Standard forward, with AKC approval and overwhelming approval by the membership. Most recently, as President, Ginger organized the AKC approval to move the Parent Club to licensing status, and gain approval for the club's first National Specialty in March of 2023.

Ginger dedicates much of her off time to the BSCBAA and continues to travel, host, and participate in many BSCBAA events. As a breeder and owner of many Boykin Spaniels, she has accomplished many conformation titles and hunt and performance titles with much help from the little brown friends as a handler, trainer and exhibitor in conformation and spaniel hunt test all with Boykin Spaniels. She is committed to the Boykin Spaniel Breed as one breed - both hunting and conformation and devoted to advancement of the breed. As a breeder, most conscious and concerned about the health issues of the Boykins and always strive to breed the healthiest, hunt instinctive and conformationally sound Boykins; following the BSCBAA Code of Ethics and OFA testing recommendations. Ginger is proudly a Breeder of Merit with the AKC. By far, her favorite thing in the world is going on hunts with her Boykins and watching their joy and skills flourish in the field.

Currently Ginger is a Real Estate Agent with Better Homes and Garden Real Estate Gary Greene and former Division I Head Swimming Coach both of which have contributed to enhancing computer, organizational, financial, marketing and management skills. Goals include helping the BSCBAA to fully become AKC Sanctioned and the Boykin Spaniel breed to become fully recognized by the AKC and for the BSCBAA to continue to accomplish milestones and move forward with national expansion.
