

PRESENTED BY

Claremont Village

MARKETING GROUP

SPONSORED BY

EVERY FIRST SATURDAY
5:00 - 8:00 pm
CLAREMONTARTWALK.COM
@claremont_art_walk
#ClaremontArtWalk

SEPT. 5, 5-8PM

CLAREMONT LEWIS MUSEUM OF ART

3/10 Black Sun

BENTON MUSEUM OF ART 120 W BONITA AVE.

CASA 425 425 W. FIRST ST.

"Gorman Bentley: Balance." With the approaching equinox, balance becomes a focus of nature. On the walls of the hotel lobby and bar are 11 large, recently installed paintings that serve to reflect the balance we all seek in order to align with the natural world around us.

CLAREMONT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE 205 N. YALE AVE.

[Sensory-friendly viewing from 4:30 to 5 p.m.]

Marci Stone is an emerging, Upland-based mixed-media expressionist artist, born & raised in Los Angeles. Redford Cruz, A SoCal artist, who is inspired by the healing power of nature.

CLAREMONT LEWIS MUSEUM OF ART 200 W. FIRST ST.

"Samella! Black as Lacquer and Iron" illuminates the extraordinary life and profound influence of Dr. Samella Lewis as an art historian, educator, philanthropist, and artist. Curated by her Scripps student Francine Farr, the exhibition includes works by Claude Lewis, Harmon Outlaw, Alison Saar, Howard Smith and others, as well as drawings and prints by Samella Lewis. Enjoy Vintage Music on the Depot Plaza.

CLAREMONT HEADSTONE CASKET URNS 427 YALE AVE.

Victor Avila, "And so what is Chicano Pop Art?" It has been described as a heady brew of Andy Warhol underground comics, and street art. Meet the artist as he presents new work in an exhibit entitled, "Truckin in thru Aztlan."

THE PACKING HOUSE ATRIUM 532 W. FIRST ST.

Join The Packing House, Local Collective Market and Smell House in celebration of "Pilgrims & Panthers: Claremont Artists Across the Generations." The September 5 show will feature the Pilgrim Place Painters' Guild including works by

THE PACKING HOUSE ATRIUM 532 W. FIRST ST.

Rose Ash, Margaret Burdge, Maribel Dana, Ron Evans, Lisa Oglesby Hamilton, Gwen Kirk, Paul Kittlaus, Cristina "Duffy" Lawson, Eleanor Scott Meyers; Pilgrim Place Potters with works by Jean Denton, Debra Gara, Eleanor Loeliger, David Loeliger and Pia Moriarity; Pilgrim Place Weavers' Guild award-winning weavers will display creations; Fabrications include handmade quilts, Karyn Packard with one-of-a-kind purses, and Tamara Rhodes with unique clothes for "Us Girls" dolls; and beautiful stained glass creations that transform light;

On Saturday, October 3, the art department at El Roble will present art by middle school students enrolled in 2-D and 3-D art classes. The evening will include live music by students and a fundraiser for the El Roble Color Guard!

POMONA VALLEY ART ASSOCIATION 317 WEST 1ST ST.

Forest Hill, PVAA Exhibiting Artist. Lover of fine art has painted beautiful works since the age of 12. Angela Mejia, Young PVAA Exhibiting Artist, gifted anatomy sketch artist.

STUDIO C 260 W. BONITA AVE.

"Sue Conner: Seventy-Five Stories Worth Holding For." Created in celebration of her 75th year, Sue Conner's work reflects on the people, places, and moments that have shaped her life. Using encaustic, fiber, handmade paper, photography, and found objects, she creates pieces that serve as vessels for memory, emotion, and story. This visual memoir invites viewers to slow down, look closer, and reflect on the stories they carry.

VILLAGE DANCE ARTS 149 W. FIRST ST
Dance: Contemporary, Ballet, Musical Theater and Hip Hop.

