EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Stay tuned for us to announce our new Executive Director. Until then, here is a little word from the new director:

"I am grateful for the opportunity that the Board of Directors of Gianna's Place has given me to be a part of building and growing this organization. I am excited about being there for the amazing young women that will be faced with unexpected challenges and grateful that they will find a home, love and support at Gianna's Place."

Homecoming Parade Support

Help us spread the word that Gianna's Place will be

OPENING in 2025!!!

The walk is less than two miles...put on your walking shoes and get your Gator On!!

Sign up for the walk and let me know you adult shirt size and you will get a Gianna's Place shirt for supporting us.

There are activities for the family at the Plaza of Americas right across the street from the staging area prior to the parade.

Enjoy a wonderful fall day....all schools are closed in the area for this wonderful event. Come on out and help support a good cause.

Also, many thanks to Lester's Garage Doors for their amazing support. Click the Sign Up Here button to register.
