Holy Communion

The Lord's Supper is a sacrament in which Jesus' body and blood are given in and with the bread and wine for the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:26-30). When we receive the Holy Communion at a church, we are making a public statement that we agree with the teachings of that church (1 Corinthians 10:14-18). The Bible cautions us against receiving the body and blood of Christ in a manner that is spiritually harmful (1 Corinthians 11:27-29). Therefore, we invite to the Lord's Supper those who have been instructed and confirmed in the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

Large Print Bulletins

Large print worship guides are available at the ushers' stand.

Listening Devices

Listening devices are available; our ushers will be glad to assist you in signing one out for today's service.

Pew Cushions

Pew cushions are available; our ushers will be glad to get them for you.

Wheelchair Accessible Seating

Wheelchair seating is located in the fifth row from the front of the church on the left and right side of the center aisle.

Church Nursery

Our Nursery is located in the Parlor, which is the first room next to the stained glass doors. The worship service can be heard in this room. The ushers can direct you to this room.

Angels: The Ultimate Divine Messengers of Hope

An Angel Brings Hope with a Sign of God's Presence in the Newly Born Christ Child

Pastor: During Advent this year, we focused on the messages brought by angels: to Zechariah, to Joseph, and to Mary. Last evening—Christmas Eve—it was a multitude of angels singing God's glory and peace to shepherds. Now, on this Christmas Day, we hear from yet one more angel: "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger" (Luke 2:10–12). Imagine the surprise of the shepherds when the sign of Christ the Lord was not a palace or a crib radiating light beams or a baby surrounded by a fierce army of guards. The sign was just a baby in a manger, wrapped in swaddling cloths! As John declares in today's Gospel, "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14). Even today, the Word comes to us in plain spoken words, in the water with God's promise of Baptism, and in the bread and wine of Communion. God's ways are not our ways; He comes in seemingly lowly, simple, and unspectacular ways that we end up discovering are full of His grace and truth.

HYMN

“O Come, All Ye Faithful” LSB 379

O, come all ye faithful,

Joyful and triumphant!

Come ye, o, come ye to Bethlehem;

Come and behold Him

Born the king of angels;

O, come, let us adore Him,

O, come, let us adore Him,

O, come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

Highest, most holy,

Light of light eternal,

Born of a virgin, a mortal He comes;

Son of the Father

Now in flesh appearing!

O, come, let us adore Him,

O, come, let us adore Him,

O, come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

Sing, choirs of angels,

Sing in exultation,

Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!

Glory to God

In the highest:

O, come, let us adore Him,

O, come, let us adore Him,

O, come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

Yea, Lord, we greet thee,
 Born this happy morning;
 Jesus, to Thee be glory giv'n!
 Word of the Father,
 Now in flesh appearing.
 O, come, let us adore Him,
 O, come, let us adore Him,
 O, come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

INVOCATION

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: (spoken) Amen.

(Please be seated or kneel as you are able for the confession and absolution)

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Pastor: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

People: But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

Pastor: Let us then confess our sins to God our Father.

People: Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

Pastor: Dear Christian friends, take heart! The darkness of your sins will never be able to overcome the light of God's love for you in Christ Jesus. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit. The One who dwelt among us, full of grace and truth, came to forgive sinners and to set us free to be children of God. The light of Jesus' forgiveness shines on you today!

People: (spoken) Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING Isaiah 52:7–10 ESV

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

SPECIAL MUSIC

“What child is this”

Sung by Dave Brown

EPISTLE Hebrews 1:1–12 ESV

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you”? Or again, “I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son”? And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, “Let all God's angels worship him.” Of the angels he says, “He makes his angels winds, and his ministers a flame of fire.” But of the Son he says, “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, the scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions.” And, “You, Lord, laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the work of your hands; they will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment, like a robe you will roll them up, like a garment they will be changed. But you are the same, and your years will have no end.”

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: (spoken) Thanks be to God.

VERSE John 1:14

Pastor: Alleluia!

People: Alleluia!

Pastor: The Word became flesh and dwelt among us,

People: and we have seen His glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father,

Pastor: full of grace and truth. Alleluia!

People: Alleluia!

Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the first chapter.

People: (we sing) Glory to You, O Lord.

HOLY GOSPEL John 1:1– 18 ESV

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light. The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (John bore witness about him, and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.'") For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.

Pastor: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: (we sing) Praise to You, O Christ.

(Please be seated)

PRAYER REQUESTS - please pass your requests to the person nearest the aisle and the ushers will pick them up during the singing of the hymn of the day. Thank you!!

CHRISTMAS DAY

Text: Luke 2:8-11

An Angel Brings Hope with a Sign of God’s Presence in the Newly Born Christ Child

Outline

The Angel Brings Hope in a Sign Telling the Shepherds Where They Might Find the Promised Savior . . . and Where We Might Find God’s Enduring Presence among Us.

- I. An angel brings hope by providing the shepherds a sign, a sign of God’s presence in the newborn Christ.
- II. We still look for God, for a sign of his presence, and he continues to direct us to his Son, revealed in Word and Sacraments.

(Please stand as we prepare to confess our faith)

CREED Nicene Creed

People: I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life ☩ of the world to come. Amen.

(Please be seated or kneel as you are able for the Prayer of the Church)

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH John 1:14

Pastor: For those who are sick, dying, or mourning, that the Christmas message bring the light of Christ into all the dark places of our lives. In Your great mercy,

People: hear us, Christ our Lord.

People: hear us, Christ our Lord.

Pastor: For our own congregation, that our hearts be filled with hope as we receive the simple signs of God's love for us in Jesus. In Your great mercy,

People: hear us, Christ our Lord.

Pastor: In remembrance of those dear ones who have died, we give thanks. As they were blessed by the grace and truth of the Word of Life and now rejoice in the presence of God, grant that we one day join them with all the choirs of angels singing God's praise for all eternity. In Your great mercy,

People: hear us, Christ our Lord.

Pastor: Hear our prayers, gracious Father, both those we have spoken and those that are too deep for words yet expressed by the Holy Spirit, for the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ.

People: (spoken) Amen.

HYMN

“Go Tell It on the Mountain” LSB 388

Go tell it on the mountain
Over the hills and ev'ry where
Go tell it on the mountain
That Jesus Christ is born

While shepherds kept their watching
O'er silent flocks by night
Behold throughout the heavens
There shone a holy light

Go tell it on the mountain
Over the hills and ev'ry where
Go tell it on the mountain
That Jesus Christ is born

The shepherds feared and trembled
When lo above the earth
Rang out the angel chorus
That hailed our Savior's birth

Go tell it on the mountain
Over the hills and ev'ry where
Go tell it on the mountain
That Jesus Christ is born

Down in a lonely manger
The humble Christ was born
And God sent us salvation
That blessed Christmas morn

Go tell it on the mountain
Over the hills and ev'ry where
Go tell it on the mountain
That Jesus Christ is born

CIRCUMCISION AND NAME OF JESUS,

Free from the Guardian

Text: Galatians 3:23–29

Theme: Through Christ, we are free of the ceremonies, civil ordinances, and condemnation of the Law of Moses, but we as Christians do not set aside God's commands but walk in the Law of the Lord.

Goal: That everyone listening would understand the differing ways in which the Law functions and in which it has been removed from Christians, and that they would rejoice in their Christian freedom in Christ maturely.

Outline

1. Are Christians obligated to obey the entire Law of Moses?
2. The false apostles' argument makes salvation dependent on human efforts.
3. The Law of Moses is not the way of salvation but instead points to the way of salvation.
4. Since Christ has come to you, you are now free from the guardian.
5. So rather than being under the Law (coerced and condemned), Christians walk in the Law (freely loving what God commands, freed from condemnation).

Through Christ, We Are Free of the Ceremonies, Civil Ordinances, and Condemnation of the Law of Moses, but We as Christians Do Not Set Aside God's Commands but Walk in the Law of the Lord.
