Holy Communion

The Lord's Supper is a sacrament in which Jesus' body and blood are given in and with the bread and wine for the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:26-30). When we receive the Holy Communion at a church, we are making a public statement that we agree with the teachings of that church (1 Corinthians 10:14-18). The Bible cautions us against receiving the body and blood of Christ in a manner that is spiritually harmful (1 Corinthians 11:27-29). Therefore, we invite to the Lord's Supper those who have been instructed and confirmed in the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod.

Large Print Bulletins

Large print worship guides are available at the ushers' stand.

Listening Devices

Listening devices are available; our ushers will be glad to assist you in signing one out for today's service.

Pew Cushions

Pew cushions are available; our ushers will be glad to get them for you.

Wheelchair Accessible Seating

Wheelchair seating is located in the fifth row from the front of the church on the left and right side of the center aisle.

Church Nursery

Our Nursery is located in the Parlor, which is the first room next to the stained glass doors. The worship service can be heard in this room. The ushers can direct you to this room.

PRELUDE
THE RINGING OF THE BELLS
WORDS OF WELCOME
PREPARATION

Pastor: Although the major focus of national celebration in the Year of Our Lord 2026 in the United States is the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, there is another memorable anniversary to be noted as well: 2026 is the 235th anniversary of the ratification of the Bill of Rights by the first US Congress. The very first words of the very first amendment within the list of additional guarantees added to the Constitution of the United States in 1791 known as the Bill of Rights states: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." That solemn guarantee enables us to gather freely to worship God without fear of disturbance or reprisal. As we gather, we can reflect on what a blessing religious freedom is ours in this God-blessed nation. Happy anniversary, United States of America!

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor: Let us pray.

Merciful God, for freedom You have set us free through Christ's liberating death and resurrection. In this freedom, teach us to live in the fruit of the Spirit and as Your own children by Baptism and faith, bearing in our bodies the fulfillment of the Law, loving You above all things and loving our neighbors as ourselves; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

(Please be seated)

OLD TESTAMENT READING Jeremiah 28:5–9

Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Hananiah the prophet in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord, and the prophet Jeremiah said, “Amen! May the Lord do so; may the Lord make the words that you have prophesied come true, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the Lord, and all the exiles. Yet hear now this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes to pass, then it will be known that the Lord has truly sent the prophet.”

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM Psalms 119:153–160; antiphon: v. 154

Pastor: Plead my cause and redeem me; give me life according to your promise! Look on my affliction and deliver me, for I do not forget your law. Plead my cause and redeem me; give me life according to your promise! Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your statutes. Great is your mercy, O Lord; give me life according to your rules. Many are my persecutors and my adversaries, but I do not swerve from your testimonies. I look at the faithless with disgust, because they do not keep your commands.

Consider how I love your precepts! Give me life,
 O Lord, according to your steadfast love. The sum of your word is truth, and every one of your righteous rules endures forever. Plead my cause and redeem me; give me life according to your promise!

EPISTLE Romans 7:1–13

Or do you not know, brothers for I am speaking to those who know the law that the law is binding on a person only as long as he lives? For a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives, but if her husband dies she is released from the law of marriage.

Accordingly, she will be called an adulteress if she lives with another man while her husband is alive. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law, and if she marries another man she is not an adulteress. Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. For while we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death. But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code. What then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet if it had not been for the law, I would not have known sin. For I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, “You shall not covet.” But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. For apart from the law, sin lies dead. I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died. The very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me. For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good. Did that which is good, then, bring death to me? By no means! It was sin, producing death in me through what is good, in order that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure.

Pastor: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

VERSE Matthew 10:39

Pastor: Alleluia. Whoever finds his life will lose it,

People: and whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. Alleluia.

Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the tenth chapter.

People: (sing) Glory to You, O Lord.

HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 10:34–42

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

“Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward.”

Pastor: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: (sing) Praise to You, O Christ.

HYMN OF THE DAY

“Let Us Ever Walk with Jesus” LSB 685

Let us ever walk with Jesus
Follow His example pure
Through a world that would deceive us
And to sin our spirits lure
Onward in His footsteps treading
Pilgrims here, our home above
Full of faith and hope and love
Let us do our Father's bidding
Faithful Lord, with me abide
I shall follow where You guide

Let us suffer here with Jesus
And with patience bear our cross
Joy will follow all our sadness
Where He is, there is no loss
Though today we sow no laughter
We shall reap celestial joy
All discomforts that annoy
Shall give way to mirth here after
Jesus, here I share Your woe
Help me there Your joy to know

Let us gladly die with Jesus
Since by death He conquered death
He will free us from destruction
Give to us immortal breath
Let us mortify all passion
That would lead us into sin
And the grave that shuts us in Shall but prove the gate to heaven
Jesus here with You I die
There to live with You on high

Let us also live with Jesus
He has risen from the dead
That to life we may awaken
Jesus You are now our head
We are Your own living members
Where You live, there we shall be
In Your presence constantly
Living there with You forever
Jesus, let me faithful be
Life eternal grant to me

NICENE CREED

People: I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(Please be seated or kneel, as you are able, for the Prayers of the Church)

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

Pastor: Lord, bend near to Your people and hearken to the sound of their voices in prayer, for You have promised to hear and grant us all things good and right through Jesus Christ, Your Son.

O merciful Lord, grant that those who have been redeemed by a cross the power and strength to bear the cross and so follow Christ. Give to us the pattern of sound words in the doctrine we confess and the pattern of good works in the lives we lead. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: O blessed Lord, You have promised us the wisdom and guidance of the Spirit, that we might rightly distinguish Your commands and promises, and, having been saved by Your grace, take heed to Your Law in the ordering of our days. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: O mighty God, all things are Yours and yet You have entrusted into our care all that You have made. Help us to be wise and discerning people as we use Your resources for Your glory and for the good of our neighbors. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: O loving God, You bear with all the wounds and suffering of Your people, and deliver them now according to Your fatherly wisdom and forever according to Your promise of redemption. Hear us on behalf of all the sick, the suffering, those in need, the dying, and those grieving, especially . . .

Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: O great God, You have ordered all things in Your wisdom and imparted to Your people the voice of Your Word and Spirit to guide us in all things. Deliver our world from war, our nations from inept or evil government and leaders, and our people from want or fear. Grant us grace to be honorable citizens of this union and to demonstrate the noble virtues of integrity and truth in all our dealings. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: O holy God, You established the love of man for woman and woman for man and ordered the home to be a place of blessing and faith, for the raising of honorable children and for the care of those in need. Bless the homes of Your people and help them to fulfill their duties and vocations with faithfulness and contentment of heart. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: O patient God, You order the seasons and enable the land to be fruitful. Order our hearts to be grateful for Your gifts and responsible in their use, enabling the poor to be sustained by those who have plenty, and generously supporting the work of Your kingdom. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: O faithful God, Your Son delivered to us the testament of His body and blood in this Holy Supper and sets our place at His Table. Give grace to those who commune here this day, that they may receive it with faith, for the nourishment of their souls and for the equipping of their hearts for the good works that glorify You. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Pastor: O maker of all that is good, You have established our days in peace through our Lord Jesus Christ and delivered to us the blessing of eternal life. Grant us Your grace so that what we here know by faith we shall finally know face to face, when we shall be joined with the saints in Your presence on high. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Silence for meditation.

Pastor: Endless Your mercy and eternal Your reign, O Lord, God of our fathers, who would have us pray, trusting in Your mercy and confident You will grant to us all that is needful; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

PROPER PREFACE

Pastor: Father of all glory, we are pleased to render to You thanks and praise for all Your goodness but most especially for the gift of Your Son, Jesus Christ, who fulfilled for You Your holy will and delivered Himself into suffering and the death on the cross in order to redeem us. He rose upon the third day and ascended to Your right hand. As He prepares for the day when He will return and bring all things to their perfect consummation, we praise Your goodness and laud Your mercy, joining with angels and archangels, patriarchs and prophets, apostles and evangelists, and all the company of heaven, evermore praising You and singing:

SANCTUS Holy, Holy, Holy (we sing) LSB 161

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Pastor: Holy Lord, mighty God, everlasting Father, You made all things from nothing and for Your glory. When sin stole us from You and turned our hearts to fear and evil, You bore with us sinners in our hour of need and raised up Your own Son to be Savior, Redeemer, and Brother in flesh. Knowing His Word of truth and rejoicing to confess His saving work, we stand before You wearing the clothing of His righteousness, that, following the guidance of Your commands, we may be found worthy for this communion and well prepared for the fullness of the eternal feast on high.

People: Amen.

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: “Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My ✠ blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

PROCLAMATION OF CHRIST

1 Corinthians 11:26; Revelation 22:20

Pastor: As often as we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the Lord’s death until He comes.

People: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Pastor: O Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, in giving us Your body and blood to eat and to drink, You lead us to remember and confess Your holy cross and passion, Your blessed death, Your rest in the tomb, Your resurrection from the dead, Your ascension into heaven, and Your coming for the final judgment. So remember us in Your kingdom and teach us to pray:

LORD'S PRAYER Matthew 6:9–13

People: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.
