Queens:

- a.) We have 13 contestants this year, however we only have one Young Miss contestant which according to our rules if we have less than we can omit the category or enforce the 75% rule. Do we want to open the young division until this coming Friday to allow for more Young Miss entries or consider cancelling the category for the year.
- b.) We had a nice turnout for the clinic & we are thankful for the clinicians we had this year- Shannon Finch (Double F Cattle), Sherry Krig (SK Training), Maegan Hollander (former MRC & MRA) and Quannah Schuller (former HW Miss & numerous other titles over the years).
- c.) Our Miss, Jr. Miss & Young Miss will be representing us at the Yucaipa Rodeo on the 15th & 16th of May.
- d.) We would like to send Leanne & Lilly to represent us at the Sheriff's Kickoff Ride on May 16th.

- We “Swore In” our two new alternate’s, Allen Cronk and Dary Finch.

Closed session began @ 7:09 and ended @ 7:22

- Tim was pleased to report that all of the new memberships received were approved.

Comments from the Floor:

- Tonii- Tim and Frankie need to work on the roping chute as the exit gate mechanisms are super tight and some of other gates within the chute need to be looked at as well so that it is ready to go for the rodeo.
- Daryl- looking forward to the possibility of having another cattle drive.
- Tim- thank you to Tonii for a good clinic, there was a lot of learning going on and it looks like there are going to be some strong contestants again this year. Also, next Sunday will be our second barrel race with Rockin BM Barrels and we are hoping they have another great turnout like last month was.
- Tonii – thank you to Quannah for always stepping up and helping with anything and everything that I ask of her even no matter what. Also thank you to our current queen and her court as they have formed a great bond this year and they always support each other and they are kind not only to each other but to others.

Motion to adjourn the meeting @ 7:30 Quannah 1st & Ana 2nd – M/C
