A Letter from your President

Wow did we ever have a great turnout for our July show with over 50 riders and everyone trying to work together to keep the show moving along. I'd like to thank everyone again for continuing to utilize our "cash app" to prepay and sending your entry forms via our email because it definitely makes it easier in the show office as it truly does save the girls time so that we can get the show started as early as we can while trying to avoid the heat.

We have our "summer" trail ride on Saturday, August 5th in Wrightwood at Inspiration Point. The sign ups will be at 9 am and we will ride out at 10 am for a 2 1/2 to 3 hour ride. There will be lunch provided afterwards which will be $5 for members and $10 for non members. Please make sure that you rsvp for the lunch count.

On another note, I want to let all of you know that our Board of Directors is still staying aware and up to date regarding the VSV outbreak that caused us to reschedule our June show in December.

I look forward to seeing everyone again this month. Please remember to visit Bonnie, Diane, Bob and Jim at the cook shack to keep yourself hydrated and well fed, as this is yet another way to support our club . It is also imperative to remember to hydrate our animal athletes as well, because if you're thirsty they're thirsty.

Thank you,

Tim Mustaikis– President

Hesperia Wranglers Queens

Our July show was a great success. I love seeing all of the families come out to watch our competitors and enjoy some tasty food from our chuck wagon. Seeing competitors help each other too, whether it's holding a horse or exhibiting good sportsmanship is always great.

There are numerous things I am looking forward to during the month of August, including the National Night Out at the Civic Plaza Park in Hesperia on, Tuesday, 8/1, our upcoming "summer" trail ride on Saturday 8/5, and of course opening ceremonies for our August show on 8/12. There are quite a few rodeos that are coming up, from Tehachapi to Norco and I cannot even begin to express just how excited I am to present our American Flag at the Hesperia Days Rodeo in September. I know our entire court is looking forward to attending as many events as we can so that we can show our Hesperia Wranglers pride.

Last but certainly not least I'd like to, once again, congratulate our 2022 Miss Hesperia Wranglers, Sydney Webb on winning 3rd runner up as well as the Photogenic award at the Miss Teen Rodeo USA pageant in Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Charlie

Until next time... may your boots be dirty, your hair messy and your eyes sparkling.
