Constantine ran it.
- Hierachial Organization within clergy
- Rome controls the Church by 606 they elect a Pope.

Jesus buids His “Ekklesia”, the Greek word for “called out people to an assembly”, not a religious word.
 Where did the word “Church” originate? → Jerome's latin translation used Kuriakon for Ekklesia.

- 13th Century Old English word - Cirice or Circe. “House of the Lord”, (people or place)
- Quakers refused to use “Church” as the word for their meeting houses. They used “steeplehouse”.
- Older than old English; Greek, the Lord's house, related to “Lord” - Kurios – “Kurikon Okikia” The Lord's house.
- In the Middle Ages this was shortened to “Kurkon”. West Germans used “Kirika”.
- Old Norse changed “Cirice” to “Kirka”. Scotts used “Kirik”. “Kirik” became “Church”.

• Kurkian implies a sacred building or temple dedicated to the Lord”. Bad ideal!
 -Latin Vulgate bible 382!

Departures from “The Way” to “Church” = Satan's Conterfeit

“The Way” is the only way to God through Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection. This is the Gospel. No more law! It is the new way of the Spirit!
