

Cover Art: Washing of Feet, by Sieger Köder (1925-2015). Köder was a German priest-painter. He was a prisoner of war during World War II and also participated in the Catholic Nerudeutschland movement. Köder's work shows the artistic influence of Chagall and is distinctive for its strong colors and robust, chunky figures.

My Coins Count! During Lent we will be collecting coins for MCC's education projects around the world. Projects like this: In the Democratic Republic of the Congo, MCC and local churches are helping families who had to flee to a different part of the country because of fighting. Their work includes various forms of help like aid in buying school uniforms and supplies, and providing French books for learning a new language. When you give your coins, you are making a difference in the world in so many ways!

Join the TLC Sunday School Class at 9:30 am every Sunday for donuts, coffee and a study of the Sermon on the Mount.

All Mosaic Conference congregations are invited to pray for Midian Leadership Project, a Conference-Related Ministry in Charleston, WV, as they travel to bring their trauma-informed athletics research to a soccer tournament on the border of Thailand and Myanmar, led by Arelti. Come to the Mennonite Heritage Center on Mar. 7, from 10 am -12 pm. for "The Why and What of Anabaptism: A Congregational Resourcing Workshop with Karl Landis." He will offer an opportunity for participants to equip their congregations with a concise and memorable understanding of Anabaptist beliefs and practices. Registration is required ($20/person): Copies of his book, Inside Mennonite Life and Thought, will also be available for sale. Refer to this flyer for more information.
