PASTORAL LETTER

Rev. Mathew George M.

Dear KMC Family,

Greetings in Jesus' Name! As we look ahead at the month of September with faith and look back at His goodness and mercy that has sustained us throughout August, let us persevere with confidence of serving an unchanging God. There is always a time the families stay together, and a day comes when they need to move on. We have been a family at KMC many years and there are people who started with us and moved on: some for green pastures, some for family compulsions and many have joined us over the years. But what is amazing of the KMC family is the love and fellowship that makes the church a beautiful place of worship which we do with freedom as families every Sunday. KMC indeed is an amazing family. Let us remind ourselves that we are living stones that make the Church and that we all play a part in building His kingdom.

As we continue to focus on "Build His Church", will focus this month "Family in Christ". Family is God's creation. From the beginning the devil has been working on destroying the family. We have the Physical Family and the Spiritual family represented as the Church. "The Church is everywhere represented as one. It is one body, one family, one-fold, one kingdom", says Charles Hodge. Families need Christian values if the traditional family unit is to remain strong. Marriages are ending in divorce at record pace. Many children learn their values from television, movies, and music instead of from their parents. Our world is in trouble, and our homes are falling apart. Though the Husband and Wife choose each other they do not choose their children. We question God sometimes of the family where He has placed, when we have difficulties. The choice is not ours. The modern-day nucleus family is becoming smaller with sometimes a just single parent with one/two kids.

If you turn down the street in your neighbourhood and drive past all the houses, you can't tell the difference between where the wise and the foolish family's live. It's only when you live inside the walls can you discern from the family's priorities, conversations, habits, and relationships whether they are following God's plan for their home. Everyday Family Worship is to be led by fathers, or other heads of families, with a view to establishing God-centred homes, promoting worship in all of life in all the members of the household, and in preparation for public/corporate worship. The Bible makes clear the importance of family worship said Ligon Duncan. The Christian family was the bulwark of godliness in the days of the puritans, but in these evil times hundreds of families of so-called Christians have no family worship, no restraint upon growing sons, and no wholesome instruction or discipline. How can we hope to see the kingdom of our Lord advance when His own disciples do not teach His gospel to their own children?

Good families build a strong Church and a strong Church builds a strong nation. We deeply need a revival in our families. Do you want God's wisdom at your house? It won't happen by just hearing God's Word, but in combination of knowing and doing what it says. No family is perfect, but more of God's blessing and peace will fill the walls of your home if you increasingly make wiser and better choice and dwell on His Word with prayer.

May the blessings of God be your portion and on your families.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Mathew George M.

- ♦ Pray for the Land Purchase for the Sarjapur Road Methodist Church.
- ♦ Pray for all the programs planned for the month of September as the Pastoral Team has focused to teach the Church about the God intended families and its impact upon the Church.
- ♦ Pray for those who are not able come to Church.
- ♦ Pray for those who are not part of any wings of the Church.

Article THE FAMILY: A WORD TO PARENTS

A Word to Fathers

Undoubtedly every Christian father feels the difficulty of bringing up a family for the Lord in days like this. Nor can we expect it to become easier as the Lord's coming draws nearer, for the darkness is increasing. The enemy seems to be doubling his efforts. Mightier and more deadly weapons are being used in the world's warfare, and it seems as though Satan is doing the same thing against the Christian in his warfare. "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." Ephesians 6:12. How much we need the whole armour of God! How much we need the light and wisdom of the Word of God, and strength from above, "because greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world." 1 John 4:4. We have no strength or wisdom of our own.

If we look about us, watching the families of many godly men, we are sure to be disappointed too, for alas, the enemy has often succeeded in his efforts there. Family after family of those whose names are recorded in the Word of God wandered far away from the Lord, and dishonoured His name in a terrible way. Is it all hopeless? Is there not a perfect pattern for us? Have we only the examples of failing men to follow, or perhaps the advice of those who have failed, as the writer owns he often has. No indeed! God has given us the perfect pattern in His Word. Just as the love of Christ for His Church is the pattern for the husband in his love to his wife, so I believe we could say that the way in which God our Father has dealt with us as His children is the perfect pattern for us as fathers with our children. (See Hebrews 12:5-10.)

This brings us in a particular way to the epistles of John, and one would like to look at them with this in mind. Let us begin with the first epistle, looking to the Lord to apply its precious lessons to our hearts. Here we have the family of God brought before us, and the wonderful truth of how God our Father has made Himself known to us. His character as light and love is brought out in such a blessed way, and now, as possessing eternal life, this character is to be manifested in us as His children. Could there be any more perfect pattern for us as fathers than this? Surely not. The father's place in the home is a very important one, yet one that we are prone to take all too lightly. The writer being himself a father, with a little family, feels much exercised as to it, that we, as fathers, are responsible to bring love and character, with all their proper instruction, before our children. The mother, as a true help-mate to her husband—for she is his complement or fullness—will then, or should, enjoy her husband's love and affection, and manifest true love, being an example before the children too. But let us, as fathers, be exercised now as to our responsibility, for it comes first.

Training Our Children

Our Conduct & Character Displayed Before Them

As to the teaching, correcting, warning, and even chastising of our children—when necessary—we get the wisdom of God for this in the book of Proverbs. It is very important that we should read this book carefully and prayerfully, so that we do not follow the ideas of men in this matter. Many dear children of God are following the ideas of the so-called wise men of the world, and sometimes even those of other Christians, instead of acting upon the wisdom of God as given us in His Word. Dear Christian father, you and I cannot be wiser than God, and we are only safe as we follow His instructions for us. If we sin against the wisdom He has given, we will wrong our own souls, and surely suffer in the government of God for our folly. (Proverbs 8:36).

However, I believe there are two sides to the training of our children. Proverbs gives us the one side, and then, I believe, we find the other in John's epistles. We are all so inclined to be one-sided: in fact most of us fail in this way. But the Word of God never makes us one-sided: it is our own wills! The book of Proverbs brings before us more particularly the training of our children: the epistles of John bring out the pattern for our own conduct with them, and the character we display before them. How important this is! In fact it seems to me that it is the most important part of their training, for it is our own conduct that gives weight to what we say to them. If we break down in this, our instructions are liable to fall on deaf ears. Needless to say, we all fail, and the writer is conscious of much failure, which he freely owns, but if others can profit by these meditations, he will rejoice indeed—and may he profit too, for God's glory!

A Word to Mothers

I know that you, Christian mother, are deeply concerned over those dear children God has given to you. You are interested, as much or more than your husband, in God's pattern for home life, for the home is your particular sphere. You are the guide in it. (1 Timothy 5:14). If it were a new house being built for the family, how carefully you and your husband would study the plans together, thinking of how you would enjoy it with your children. And how much more important is the plan God has given us, not for a beautiful house of wood, brick or stone, which may be spoiled by the broken hearts behind its grand walls, but for a home of light and love. In a word, it is the character of the home that makes it what it really is, be it humble or grand in appearance.

And you can be your husband's true help-mate in building this home of light and love, or you can pluck it down. You can encourage and uphold him in his love and correction of the children, or you can oppose and hinder him. This is very important. You wield a tremendous influence in the home, in many ways far greater than your husband's. You are with the children more than he is, and they look to you. You can do more than he to make or break the home. Remember how Eve ruined the first home in the world when she acted independently of God and her husband. She did not turn to him, but took the lead herself and listened to the voice of Satan instead. God had made her to be a help-mate to Adam, but she hindered him, bringing plenty of sorrow upon herself too. God's pattern is always the best and we can only expect His blessing as we seek grace to follow His Word.

There are also two external things which God has given to mark out the woman's place: her long hair, and her apparel. I believe we should mention these here, for they are important enough for God to mention them in His Word in a very definite way. Long hair is a sign of submission (1 Corinthians 11:3-15) and is in keeping with a godly home. Then too there is modest apparel, clothes pertaining to a man being mentioned for such would be unbecoming to a woman who is in her God-given place. (1 Timothy 2:9; Deuteronomy 22:5). In these days when the fashions are altogether otherwise, there needs to be a single eye to please the Lord, and not others, in these matters, especially before our children.

Dear Christian mother, "Cease...to hear the instruction that causeth thee to err from the words of knowledge." Proverbs 19:27. Do not listen to the advice of the world, nor even to that of some Christians who "reject the counsel of God against themselves" (Luke 7:30) because it condemns them. It is your wisdom to seek grace to fulfill the place of a helpmeet (not of the head) which God has given you in the home. It is a wonderful place. Even if your husband should fail in fulfilling his place as head, ask the Lord for grace to fulfill yours. His failure does not change your place or responsibility, nor does it change his. He needs your help and prayers. Alas, we all fail as husbands, but fault finding and blaming one another will not straighten matters out, nor help to build up the home, but it will surely help to "pluck it down". How much we need the grace and strength which comes from above, especially when difficulties arise in the home, but let us not depart from the divine pattern.

How thankful we can be for all of this precious instruction in the Word of God, and that God has not left us to our own thoughts in these matters. He has marked out the Pattern: not to rob us of happiness, but for our good as fathers and mothers—that our joy may be full. Let us each take up the Scriptures and search these things out. Let us see what God's Word says, and then let us ask Him for grace to carry it out. I speak these words humbly, I trust, and in love; knowing that God has planned that our days in the home should be "as the days of heaven upon earth" (Deuteronomy 11:21). If we follow His wisdom, they will be!

Ponder these things well, dear Christian mother, and may God bless you and your dear children. By acting upon God's Word you can prove the blessedness of walking in His ways, and your husband and children will say of you what is said of the wife and mother described in Proverbs 31:28-29, "Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all".

"Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded." 2 Chronicles 15:7.

REPORT ON SEMINAR ON SEXUALITY

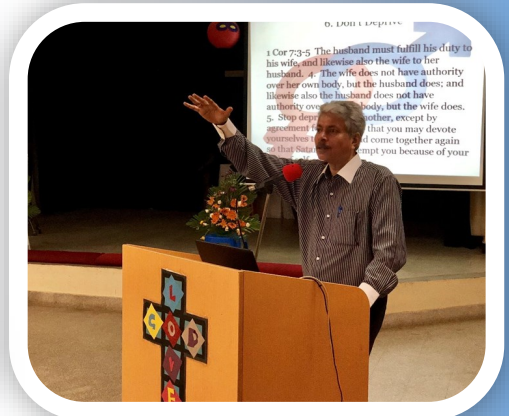

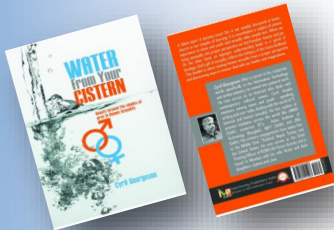

Participants at the Seminar

Speaker:

Mr. Cyril Georgeson

Author of

"Drink from your own Cistern"

Committee on Education and Christian Nurture organized two seminars on SEXUALITY TODAY on 24th and 25th August 2019, with the speaker being Mr. Cyril Georgeson. Our Pastors were present for the Saturday evening seminar which was a blessing and an encouragement.

The seminars started with the speaker stating the enormity of the topic – SEXUALITY and then focused on the following topics - homosexuality, transgenders, live in relationships and lust.

The seminars were very informative and educative with Biblical insights. Almost everyone was blessed by these two seminars with the teenagers asking for another session. Both the seminars drew in about 80 people across different age groups.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATIONS!

Senior Pastor Rev. Mathew George delivering the message on the occasion

It was the day when we as members of KMC gathered to celebrate and thank God for Independence Day. Our pastors Rev Matthew, Rev Ezra and Rev Peter lead us in a time of praise and worship and brought the word of God to us. We committed our nation, those in authority in the State and in the Centre in prayer.

We were privileged to have Mr. Victor Samaraj, who had served along with Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, to speak to us. He gave us an account of the struggle for Independence and shared his personal experience working with Netaji. It was a time to realise how great the struggle was and to celebrate the freedom we have as citizens of this country and above all the freedom we have in Christ.

Mr. Surendar Gnanaolivu, who served as a Flight Lieutenant in the Indian Air Force and Mr Samraj unfurled the Flag. Those gathered saluted the flag and sang the National Anthem.

Follow-up Trip TO KOLAR METHODIST GIRLS' HOSTEL

Soon after the celebration of the 73 Independence Day at the premises we were served a sumptuous breakfast to travel to Kolar on a "Follow-up Trip" to visit the Kolar Methodist Girls' Hostel. Along with the Pastors about 60 of us boarded the Baldwin School bus and left for Kolar. On reaching the girls' hostel we were greeted by happy faces and warm welcoming smiles. It was a blessing to see the girls happy. We gathered for a time of devotion and were welcomed by Miss Sujatha, the warden and the in-charge of the Hostel. Later the District Superintendent Rev. P. Shanthkumar of Kolar Methodist Church came and received the team with love and appreciated our efforts in building the Kolar Girls' Hostel in many ways. The girls welcomed us with roses, tea and biscuits. This took the weariness of the journey away. There was a lot of singing and sharing God's love. Ms. Joana, Mrs. Anitha Purshotham prepared the quiz for the occasion and Mr. Kiran and Mr. Vijayanand compiled a quiz on the Bible and another on Indian History and independence. Many of us learnt a lot trying to answer the questions, some managed to win prizes too! The girls entertained us with skits and singing. We exchanged greetings and enjoyed the hospitality. Soon lunch was served. We feasted on chicken biryani and kebabs and kheer. Yes, that was enjoyable as well.

We went around and saw the work that was completed in repairing and renovating the toilets, bathrooms and hand-washing sinks. They were clean and a vast improvement on how these structures were when we first saw them. Our gratitude to the team, Mr. Chandranath, Mr. Abey John and Dr. Stan Macaden from KMC and to everyone who contributed their time and donated money for this cause. Miss Sujatha and the girls expressed their gratitude for our help and involvement. This place is indeed an example of how we as a church could look beyond and help set things right making those less fortunate more comfortable and happier. We salute the staff there, who are working for many months without a salary. They keep the place going, put food on the table and keep the premises clean. Their commitment to be there for the girls is admirable! There is a great deal more to be done to improve the hostel. May God give us the wisdom and the means to help. Together, as KMC we can make a difference. To God be all glory. (More pictures on Page 23)

An Appeal REVAMP OF THE ELECTRICAL WORK AT KMC

“Aesthetics is a division of Theology seeking, with the help of Art, to induce man to serve God”

Thomas Aquinas

Dear KMC family

It is almost 19 years that God has kept us safe and enabled us to worship at the KMC, in the new building above the CEB Hall. As time passes by, everything around us grows older and so is the case with the KMC structure. There are huge needs for the maintenance of this large structure. As you might have observed, in some parts of the building there is some water seepage, painting of the whole out part of the building is very much needed. Before we think of these things, the time has come for us to focus give priority on the renovation of the Electrical Work at KMC.

Since we had some regular problem with the “Elevator” for almost six months and were spending more on its maintenance every week. We called the Electrical Consultant to have a look at the Electrical issues that contributed to the breakdown of the elevator, and to our surprise, we came to know that there are some major defects in the whole Electrical Wire Structure of the Church. The Electrical Consultant was immediately requested to give the report of the ground situation. The detailed report was alarming as we were at the brink of a major fire any time, if we continue in the same arrangement. The main reason happens to be no regular maintenance and no upgradation of our Electrical System for almost 19 years.

As we all are aware, electrical issues are a very serious in nature and unpredictable, as many children and adults meet during the week and Sundays for many different programs at the premises. The Pastorate Committee considered it as a high priority work, as it involved human lives and has given its approval for the renovation of all the Electrical Structure as soon as possible. We have received the breakup of the works from the Electrical Consultant, which needs to be executed and the same is presented below for your kind perusal. The renovation of the Electrical Work is done by a licenced, reputed, professional contractors under the supervision of the Professional Electrical Consultant and the project cost comes up to almost Rs. 20,00,000/-.

Since it is each one of our responsibility to care for KMC structure we request you to pray for this major project and participate in sharing your resources for the same. We also encourage you to speak to those who are abroad also to those who have moved to different cities in India for different reasons and to those who were blessed by KMC in the past years. Currently she (KMC) needs our care as she has many more years of ministry with our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ!

HOW CAN I EXPLAIN HOLY SPRIT TO A CHILD?

The Holy Spirit and the Trinity is hard enough for adults to understand, so how can we explain who the Holy Spirit is to children? The key points for children to understand are that the Holy Spirit is God, but also has a distinct personhood from the Father and the Son. This Person comes from the love that the Father and the Son have for one another. Throughout Scripture (and in the Church today), we can see the Holy Spirit at work. The following are some ways you might approach teaching about the Holy Spirit to your children.

We believe in one God, who is three divine Persons

It is difficult to understand how one God could be three divine persons. Of course, God is not a creature like us, and so we can never fully understand the fullness of who he is. However, he has revealed to us that though there is one God, he is God the Father, God the Son (Jesus Christ) and God the Holy Spirit. The chart (in box) is helpful to learning more about the Trinity. You'll see here that Father, Son and Holy Spirit are all God; however, the Father is distinct from the Son, who is distinct from the Holy Spirit and so forth.

Out of the love of God the Father, God the Son, comes the Holy Spirit

From the love of the Father and the Son comes the Holy Spirit. He is the love that exists between the Father and the Son.

Think about your parents. Your mom loves your dad. Your dad loves your mom. You could say that they are "in love." There is a love that exists between them, and that love brings about a lot of great things, including you!

It is in the same manner that the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son. And, like any love that exists between two people, the Holy Spirit is sent forth to make an impact on us here on earth.

The Holy Spirit has a special role in history because he is the one who is sent to be our guide. Can you think of any instances in the Bible where we see the way in which the Holy Spirit fulfills his particular mission as the Person of the Trinity sent forth to help us?
