Q1 data discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Print or digitally retrieve evidence of data, along with Cheryl's template</li> <li>● Templeton has 26 enrolled Q 1 and 4 achieved EFL gain. 10% of money spent.</li> <li>● Lucia Mar has 131 students enrolled Q1. 45% of Funds spent by Q2. Cosmos goes 2 days live, 2 independent. Program increased in cost, but is still affordable compared to other programs.</li> <li>● San Luis Coastal increased opportunity for JailEd Programs. HSD at JailEd. Currently 73 enrolled. More students are attempting to enter the GED process rather than HSD. Worried students attempting the GED program are not ready to do so.</li> <li>● Conversation regarding the challenges with the GED program, there needs to be a focus on classroom and curriculum.</li> <li>● SLCUSD has spent 20% of CAEP allocation</li> <li>● Lucia Mar has created lectures for math. Will begin with econ and government. Increase modality of instruction. Students that fall below 9th grade level will be appointed to Read 180.</li> <li>● JailEd for SLCUSD falls under WIOA, mostly.</li> <li>● Cuesta- HSE 498, is an umbrella of courses, which includes ESL and college success stories, bridge classes. ESL-559 were approved during faculty prioritization for ESL to receive a full time tenure track faculty member. With CTE, that is including California Conservation Awareness.</li> <li>● Adults with disabilities dropped to 172. Could not keep up with collaboration meetings previously. Are hoping to expand now that Wes has joined. Difficulty is hiring faculty for AWD. Priorities include improving GED program, expanding CTE (Welding, Hospitality, Auto Body Mechanic) and AWD.</li> <li>● CDL is coming in March 2025 for Cuesta.</li> </ul>	All	9:50	Discussion / Action

Discuss 3 year plan goals <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Members opened up the previous three year plan to discuss whether the goals were met. At next meeting, all members should review plan to address results and strategies on how to improve and reach those previous goals. Mia Suggested reading annual plan as well as those should align with the three year plan. Goal is to be data driven. Cheryl wants to confirm on how many goals are needed for the three year plan. Suggests goals should be revised to see if they have been completed. Transitions is a topic for all to improve on. Mia committed to having Cuesta coaches and ESL chair at meetings to improve transition opportunities. SLCUSD has increased their rigor in the HSE courses they teach. Edgenuity has helped because it creates structure. Populations needs have not shifted, only our delivery has. Improving HSE programming is a continued goals as well as Transitions. Cuesta is hoping to expand AWD and CTE programs.</li> </ul>	All	10:30	Discussion / Action
