.....

- All riders must wear approved, protective headgear any time they are mounted at B.E.A. or B.E.A. Sanctioned events.
- All riders and participants agree to comply with the FEI's Code of Conduct & Welfare of the Horse as well as all instructions given by any Officer, representing the Association, while attending any event held under the auspices of the B.E.A. Breaches of the foregoing will result in disciplinary measures as stated in and Bylaw 1 and Article 14, of the Constitution.
- The B.E.A. reserves the right to refuse or allow participation of any individual and/or horse, should their behaviour be inconsistent with the F.E.I's Code of Conduct & Welfare of the Horse or should any mental or physical condition deems it unsuitable for them to participate. The Barbados Equestrian Association reserves the right to make such a judgement on behalf of the participant, or alternatively, request a doctor/veterinarian examination, at the expense of the participant, based on which the BEA may make a final decision before allowing participation.
- All persons ride and participate at their own risk. The B.E.A. or the property owners of any venue utilised by the B.E.A., are not liable for any accident, loss, theft, damage, injury, illness or death, which is suffered by any rider, horse, owner, groom, spectator or participant, vehicles, their contents and accessories or any other person or property whatsoever, whether caused by their negligence, breach of contract or in any other way whatsoever.

Should you be unclear on any matter addressed in this document you are required to clarify such matters before signing this form. Should you require information as to how you may acquire a copy of any document referred to within this form, it is your responsibility to access such information from the Secretary of the B.E.A.
