June July August 2018

The May Rally, hosting the annual Doc Cain Fishing Tournament, was a huge success. Thursday evening started with a showing of Seabiscuit in TAHI's comfortable tv viewing area. Movie night is becoming quite popular, and with the regulation pool table, newly donated ping pong table, seating areas, available board games, library, and exercise equipment, everyone can enjoy something. Friday saw some 60 people around the park for the weekend events. The shrimp boil that evening was a huge success. Red checkered tables were set up in the shade by the clubhouse for people to eat all they wanted. A big thanks to Cap'n Bob and Susan Warner for donating the shrimp. Terry and Alice Mc Fillen provided his now-famous homemade potato chips as appetizers. Fred & RutheAnn Richardson along with guest Carl Hanks and all the other East Texas Host Group members did an outstanding job cooking for the crowd. After dinner a train group commenced their dominos playing, and several golf carts formed a mini caravan to the point to wind down by watching the lake. Saturday's breakfast was delicious. The fishing teams enjoyed pleasant weather, and a group of non-fishing women journeyed to the historic section of Lufkin for a morning of antiques and lunch! An ice cream social, meetings, and pot luck finished the afternoon. Fred hosted a fun evening of prizes for the tournament winners. Sunday morning celebrated mothers everywhere. Fred always inspires us with thought provoking messages. I hope to see you all in September. I am sure that TAHI will host MANY fun (eating) events all summer that all TGPU members will be included in everything! Have safe travels on your summer adventures—send pictures!

2018 News & Views

Sure has been a lot of activity at Texas Airstream Harbor this summer...with projects underway to put our new water tank into operation after receiving approval from Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) to proceed.

We have a lot of new folks who have purchased memberships at TAHI..Please welcome John & Norma Cowart who purchased two lots on Pine street at Angelina that belonged to the Jacobs and to the Flournoy family.

A Work Crew was called a couple of times to dig in our new plumbing preparing for the engineers to install our new Aeration device that will help us control the Trihalomethane issues we've been experiencing.

Jim & Debi Rich purchased a lot on Elm street from Linda Williams and construction has begun there for a cabana..

George & Angie Embry purchased the cabana and extra lot on Magnolia from the Stienmetz and another lot with cabana cover on Magnolia from Ken and Jan Lively.

Trey & Rachel Wilson purchased a lot on Oak street from Bill & Judy Wilson

Following the May membership meeting there was a considerable amount of properties being moved before the new membership rules that were voted on went into effect on June 1st. Charlie Petrillo purchased two lots and a cabana from Suzanne Cronin. And Terry & Alice McFillin purchased two lots from Suzanne on Angelina street.

It's not been all work, we've had visitors in the park almost non-stop. Including small ones like the grandkids of Randy and Nancy. And lots and lots of emails from our website about folks inquiring for a place to winter this coming cold season. One couple from Canada has reserved for four months and others asking for long term visits, too.

Fishing has been good and the sunset views spectacular. A few folks have been traveling early this year (late May & early June) and more are scheduled to caravan later in July. Hopefully we'll have lots of pictures to share about our journeys when we meet in September.

Make your plans to spend July 4th in the Park at TAHI. We are having a cook-out and our annual spectacular FIREWORKS display. Come be a part of the fun!
