*Students will be separated according to individual ability level, size, speed, strength, and experience according to instructor's discretion. Closures due to major holidays, major storms, power outages, & alike will not be made up as they are not the fault of the dojo. Our dojo staff is very generous with extra training opportunities throughout the year; however, TKC may exercise the right to close for two, 1-week periods during the year for management determined reasons. As learned from the COVID-19 pandemic, we can be very flexible to accommodate most situations. Finally, karate instruction is, first and foremost, for the student and not for entertainment or abusive purposes. TKC management reserves the exclusive right of expulsion to any student and/or parent/guardian who engage in dangerous/harmful, or unlawful, or divisive words/actions/deeds (as determined by TKC management/ownership). TKC strives to always provide a safe, nurturing learning environment to all who enroll with good intentions.

TKC Dojo accepts these instruments of payment: Cash; check; major credit (or debit) cards - *not AMEX; VENMO; EFTs from checking or savings accounts, and money orders. Credit and debit cards and VENMO transactions must include a 3.0% service fee.
