User Agreement of TKC library archives of videos and PDF forms

Traditional Karate Center (TKC herein) has a cache of videos and printable resources exclusively for our active students and staff members to access for the purpose of training/practice aids. These videos and documents come from various sources. Many videos are directly from the International Karatedo Gojukai Association (IKGA) and/or its adjunct – All-Japan Karatedo Gojukai Association - JKGA. IKGA is TKC's parent organization and whose curriculum we teach.

1. These materials are expressly for viewing purposes only by the user: defined as any TKC, active student in good standing
2. User may not share with anyone the materials (video or PDF) nor access details (login/password)
3. Any means of reproduction of videos is expressly forbidden. PDF handouts may be printed for personal use; but never recopied to be given to others, nor sharing of your printed copy
4. These materials are, expressly, never to be reproduced and stored on media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, et al, even as your own personal library of video resources
5. Materials are login and password protected in 4 levels of access: Beginner, Novice, Intermediate, and Advanced. Access passwords are modified quarterly – or sooner if necessary
6. Access and use is not a right - use of our archives is a privilege extended to only to certified users
7. TKC has the right to immediately restrict and/or rescind access without advance notice or cause
8. Liability for breach of this user agreement does not expire

At the heart of karatedo are virtues of personal honor and integrity; and, they are expressly required to enter into this agreement. TKC would never grant access to this library in the absence of a mutually signed pact/agreement/contract. Your signature(s) below acknowledge that you vow to comply with all of the above terms without exception, deception, or bad intent. Violations of this user agreement/contract will be dealt with by the most stern means available by law to include litigation for illegal use and/or dissemination of copyrighted materials and/or expulsion from TKC.
