

Position: - Maths Teacher

Job Title:	Maths Teacher
Hours:	Full/Part Time
Contract Type:	Permanent
Salary:	Up to £48,000 depending on experience and qualifications.
Responsible to:	Headteacher/Senior Leadership Team/Head of Department

Job Description:

A fantastic opportunity has arisen for an ambitious and ideas driven Maths Teacher to work in our school/Academy.

If you are passionate about providing high quality teaching and learning and have a natural flair for delivering creative and vibrant lessons that enthuses and motivates all students to want to learn and achieve, we will love to hear from you. The successful candidate will work collaboratively within our team delivering the existing fully resourced curriculum within the academy. You will need have excellent communication skills and work collaboratively with the Head Teacher, SLT team and your direct team.

General Main Duties and Responsibilities:

Overall Responsibilities:

- Encourage high standards in all aspects of school life, particularly in student progress
- Contribute to the effective and efficient running of the school
- Promote a school culture which is positive, purposeful and professional
- Support and motivate students, teachers and other school employees
- Encourage consultation, review and improvement

Teaching and Learning Responsibilities:

- Plan and prepare well-structured, clearly presented lessons appropriate to the abilities of all students and the syllabus being taught
- Make sure that the classroom is a stimulating environment that facilitates learning
- Generate enthusiasm for the subject being taught and inspire all students to work to their potential
- Liaise with the Head of Department and Learning Support where a student may have special educational needs and with the form tutor if a student is experiencing pastoral difficulties
- Promote high standards of behaviour by encouraging a positive, proactive approach to study and build productive relationships with students
- Set homework according to policy and pertinent to the student's ability and wider workload
- Promote high standards of organisation
- Be punctual to lessons
- Promote high standards in the use of English as the common language and help develop English for Academic Progress
- Provide high-quality, accurate, constructive and targeted information to parents at Parents' Evenings, in subject reports, incidental meetings and communications
- Assess, record and monitor the progress of all students according to faculty guidelines in order to provide accurate information to parents in a variety of forms, as and when necessary
- Maintain materials and resources as needed

Responsibilities to the Department and School:

- Be respectful of the needs of colleagues and the department with regards to cooperation, collegiality, deadlines and team cohesion
- Participate positively in departmental meetings, follow policies and generally contributing to the effective and efficient running of the department
- Promote professional dialogue, share ideas about teaching and learning and support other teachers in developing good practice and new approaches and initiatives
- Take part in, and contribute to, INSET activities offered in the department and by the school
- Enthusiastically contribute to cross-curricular links and initiatives, and Leadership in Action activities
- Be involved in new responsibilities within the department as part of an ongoing process of professional development
- Keep up to date with developments in the subject, and in education generally Other Responsibilities
- Undertake other reasonable duties as requested by the Head of Department, Head of Year or members of the Senior Leadership Team and any duties that the Headteacher deems necessary for the effective operation of the school

Maths Teacher – Personal Specification

	Essential:	Desirable:
Qualification:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Appropriate degree, with UK PGCE, or other teaching qualification giving QTS • Minimum three years' teaching experience • Familiarity with the National Curriculum of England (plus IGCSE/GCSE and/or A Levels as appropriate)
Skills, Knowledge, Aptitude & Experience:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Able to teach Mathematics to the full ability age range up to, and including, A Level Mathematics. • Able to represent abstract mathematical concepts in a concrete or pictorial fashion to facilitate cognitive development. • Experience with Mastery in Mathematics would be advantageous. • A genuine passion for Mathematics and how pedagogy shapes how we develop subject engagement with the students. • Able to plan lessons effectively to meet the needs of all students in the class including effective use of AfL • A willingness to work as part of a team to ensure excellent practice. • A willingness to take on extra duties related to department needs as directed by the Head of Year. • A willingness to offer revision or

	support sessions for students outside normal teaching hours (at lunchtimes and after school), including in the run-up to public examinations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A passion for educating and inspiring children and young adults. • A fascination with the many different methods of academically challenging students both inside and outside the classroom. • A willingness to share resources with other members of the department. • A willingness to assist in maintaining a collegiate and supportive environment within the school and the department. • An awareness of the needs of EAL learners and strategies used to support and scaffold students' language development is beneficial, as the majority of our students are non-native English speakers. • The ability to write academic references and letters of recommendation for Sixth Form students as part of their university application process, including supporting students with the writing of personal statements. • A willingness to run, or assist with, subject-related extracurricular activities such as FOBISIA Mathematics and SEAMC preparation.
--	---	--

Physical:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Must be able to perform all duties and tasks with reasonable adjustment, where appropriate, in accordance with the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 • Ability to undertake manual work and to perform tasks
-------------------------	--	--

Personal Qualities:	Confidence About Mathematics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You should have a great knowledge of the subject and has acquired formal education in different branches of mathematics such as; algebra, geometry, and arithmetic. • You must be well-versed with the new topics introduced by the various educative boards and stay abreast of changes..
-----------------------------------	---	--

	Making Math Interesting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Math as a subject can be terrifying and it takes extra efforts for the subject teacher to ease the Math anxiety amongst students. • Able to introduce hands-on learning by making use of different tangible Math teaching aids. Facilitate Learning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To be able not to give out the read-made answer but motivates students to work through the problem and arrive at the solutions themselves. Respect Every Learner's Pace: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You should be aware that each child is unique, and as students, have their own grasping power. • Be conscious of every child's pace of learning and slow-down or speed-up a particular topic, as per all the students learning capabilities in class. Don't Judge Children on Their Mistakes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be mindful not to judge the children or their mistakes. • Able to change a child's mindset by explaining that solving complex problems is more of a journey, rather than a destination.
--	---	--

The setting is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. A full-enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) and a pre employment health check will be obtained prior employment including satisfactory references checks.

You may contact us at:

Placing People Direct

T: 0333 335 5021 M: 07743 249 982 E: sunita@placingpeopledirect.co.uk

W: www.placingpeopledirect.co.uk