

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

“This notice describes how your personal and medical information that you provide us may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information, please review it carefully”

Effective August 31, 2018

Confidentiality Practices

The Arizona Department of Economic Security (DES) is committed to protecting your Personal Identifying Information (PII) and Protected Health Information (PHI). This notice explains how DES will use, share, and protect your PII and PHI. It also explains your rights to privacy of your PII and PHI as required by law. DES can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The revised notice will be posted to our web site and will be provided to you on request.

Collection, Storage, and Disposal of PII and PHI

The DES and its programs will identify and collect the minimum PII and PHI data elements that are relevant and necessary to conduct the business functions it is legally authorized to perform. It will review the use of the PII and PHI data elements annually to ensure that only the necessary data is collected and stored for business purposes. Your PII and PHI will be stored in our computer systems and paper files, if necessary, according to State and Federal retention laws. Access to these computer systems is restricted based on a person's job functions and role within the organization.

Uses, Sharing, and Protection of PII and PHI

The law only allows our staff to use your PII and PHI when doing their jobs or to share your information when it is necessary to run the program. When PII and PHI is shared with other agencies or organizations, DES requires them to keep your PII and PHI confidential. Your PHI will be shared to approve or deny treatment, and to determine if you are getting the right medical treatment. For example, doctors and nurses employed by the programs may review the treatment plan created for you by your health care provider to make sure the care you receive is medically necessary.

The Program Will Use and Share Your PHI Without Authorization to:

- Make payments to your health care providers for medical services provided to you.
- Coordinate payment for your care between the program, other health plans, and other insurance companies that may be responsible for the cost of your care.
- Coordinate your care between the program, other health plans, and health care providers to improve the quality of your health care.
- Evaluate the performance of your health care provider. For example, the program contracts with consultants to review hospital and other facilities' medical records to check on the quality of care you received.
- Release information to its attorneys, accountants, and consultants so that the program is run efficiently and to detect and prosecute program fraud and abuse.
- Send you helpful information such as program benefit updates, free medical exams, and consumer protection information.
- Share information with other government agencies or organizations that provide benefits or services when the information is necessary in order for you to receive those benefits or services.

The Program May Disclose Your PHI Without Authorization:

- To public health agencies for activities such as disease control and prevention, problems with medical products or medications.
- If you are the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.
- To health oversight agencies responsible for the Medicaid Program such as the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and its Office of Civil Rights.
- In court cases or judicial and administrative hearings when required by law to run the program.
- To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors so they can carry out their jobs as required by law.
- To organizations involved with organ donation and transplantation, communicable disease registries and cancer registries.
- To entities authorized to conduct a research project.
- To prevent a serious threat to a person's or the public's health and safety.
- To the military if you are or have been a member of the armed services.
- To a correctional facility or law enforcement officials to maintain the health, safety, and security of the corrections systems, if you are held in custody.
- To workers' compensation programs that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness without regard to fault.
- To law enforcement or national security and intelligence agencies, and to protect the President and others as required by law.

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Information Based on Your Written Authorization

All other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. These may include:

- Most uses and disclosures of your psychotherapy notes will require your authorization.
- Any use or disclosure for marketing purposes will require your authorization.
- Any use or disclosure that would constitute a sale of your information will require your authorization.

Your Other Rights Concerning Your PII and PHI Includes the Right to:

- See and get copies of your records. You may be charged a fee for the cost of copying your records.
- Request to have your records amended or corrected if you think there is a mistake. You must provide a reason for your request.
- Receive a list of disclosures. This list will not include the time that information was disclosed for treatment, payment or health care operations covered under the law. The list will not include information provided to you or your family directly, or information that was sent with your authorization.
- Further restrict uses and disclosures of your PII and PHI. You must tell DES what information you want to limit and to whom you want the limits to apply. DES is not required to agree to the restriction.
- Cancel authorizations previously provided by you to DES. This cancellation, however, will not affect any information that has already been shared.
- Receive a written notification in the event of a breach of your protected information.
- Choose how the program communicates with you in a certain way or at a certain place.
- Opt out of receiving fundraising communications.
- File a complaint if you do not agree with how DES has used or disclosed information about you.
- Receive a paper copy of this notice at any time.
