

Disclosure Statement:

Help For My Parents LLC uses our extensive personal & professional experience to assist seniors and/or their families searching for long-term care. Our experience in senior care is what makes us different from other placement service agencies.

Help For My Parents LLC is happy to serve our clients and their families for FREE. We contract with partner facilities to find the best fit based on an assessment of care needs, budget requirements and location desired. These facilities pay our fee and allow us to work for YOU for FREE.

A senior and/or their family may stop using Help For My Parents LLC at any time without cause or penalty.

Help For My Parents LLC uses a proprietary system to qualify the partner facilities, however, this information may not include all potential facilities.

Help For My Parents LLC strives to provide care options that fit the care, cost & location desired by the senior needing care and/or their families.
