NEW IN 2023

Every day in America, 10,000 people turn 65, and are living longer than ever before. Now is a wonderful opportunity to present the lived experiences of our elders and acknowledge their valuable role in our society.

The 11th Legacy Film Festival on Aging will expand its reach with Eventive, an online platform enabling access to audiences from across the US and Europe.

IN 2023, the Festival is offering graduated sponsorship levels with expanded benefits to capitalize on your organization's exposure, as well as its support of the festival's mission: to inspire, entertain, and educate intergenerational audiences on the challenges and triumphs of aging.

With your organization's support, we can inspire younger and older adults alike to value their journey to later life.

The Legacy Film Festival on Aging celebrates the aging process as profound and meaningful, often challenging, and always courageous. Will we 'age gracefully,' crankily, or painfully? Or defiantly? Our films portray some of the many facets of this unique, ever-changing experience honestly and artfully and always with compassion and love for their subjects.
