WORDS TO KNOW

LISTING AGENT

Also known as the seller's agent, a licensed real estate professional who markets the seller's property, represents the seller's best interest by negotiating on behalf of the seller to secure the best price and selling scenario as possible.

OFFER

An offer is a preliminary agreement to purchase a home, and is set between a buyer and a seller.

SELLER CONCESSION

Sellers may offer concessions to incentivize buyers to purchase the home, or sweeten the deal.

GOOD FAITH MONEY

Good faith money is the balance of funds that are set aside into a trust or an escrow account to show the buyer is serious about the purchase.

DAYS ON MARKET

Number of days from the date on which the property is listed for sale on the local real estate brokers' multiple listing service.

TITLE SEARCH

A title search will confirm that the property that is being sold in fact belongs to the seller.

APPRAISAL

An appraisal is the value that is assigned to the real estate asset based on an assessment of the asset, neighborhood, market condition, and more.

HOME INSPECTION

A home inspection is an official review of the real estate asset's current condition. They will help to determine if there is any work needed to be done to the property to bring it to normal working order.

DISCLOSURES

The disclosures related to a property will include everything that the sellers know about the property, including any areas that need repairs.

CLOSING

The closing part of the real estate sale is when the money and keys are exchanged.

CONGRATULATIONS

you've sold your home!

01 FINDING A GREAT agent

A dedicated, responsive, good and knowledgeable real estate agent will guide you through the process, negotiate offers, and help you earn top dollar for your house. You want to make sure that your real estate agent is as invested in this sale as you are.

quick note

Any questions that pop up during the home selling process is okay to ask!

Agents have access to a wide variety of resources that is not readily available to the public. They can help you determine the best price and time to sell.

With collective experience and expertise, agents can help you negotiate the best price for your home. Agents also must undergo annual training and compliance to ensure that they are up to date on any changes in legal or administrative paperwork.

Your real estate agent is dedicated to helping you in answering any questions that arise from this process. We treat you, how we would like you to treat us!

02 ESTABLISHING A price

THE LISTING PRICE

Setting a reasonable listing price is one of the most important aspects in the entire home selling process. If you list too high, you might not get any offers and it can take you a while to sell your home. Alternatively, if you price too low, you might be missing out on a greater return on your investment.

Your agent will give negotiating room to for the best listed price.

WHAT DETERMINES THE PRICE?

You have some options in order to price your home for sale:

- You can engage with a third party home appraiser, who will perform an analysis on your home and the neighborhood.
- You can get your real estate agent to perform an analysis on other homes for sale in the area.

03 LISTING YOUR HOME

Congratulations! You have officially listed your home for sale.

Your real estate agents will use their network to ensure that your listing is as visible as possible, and reaches the appropriate audience.

As an option, a sign can be provided for your front yard to let passerby's know of your intentions to sell.

04 home VIEWINGS

For the first few weeks/ weekends, make sure that your calendar is flexible for showings. This will help provide potential buyers a greater number of viewing options.

Private viewings as well as open house viewings will be set up during the first few weeks of listing your home.

You should make arrangements for pets and children during viewing times, to help make the viewing experience as pleasant and distraction free as possible.

05 PREPARING YOUR HOME

The way you style your home can be a make it or break it point for a potential buyer. They have to be able to picture themselves living in your space, so be mindful of what you leave visible to viewers. You can hire or rent professional props and decorators to help stage your home.

Consider getting professional photos taken as these determine the first impression the potential buyer will have of your house.

a reminder

Be sure to put away any personal photographs, memorabilia, and artifacts as it will look like clutter to a potential buyer. You can replace photos with wall art.

home SHOWINGS CHECKLIST

Improve your landscaping and curb appeal, since that is the first thing buyers see.

Make as many repairs as you can afford to. Unless you are pricing it below market value to sell as-is, taking the time to make repairs can get you a better offer.

If you can, repaint your home. Adding a fresh coat of paint to a lived-in property can help it look like new.

Depersonalize the home by removing family photos, so you give buyers the opportunity to envision their own lives in the house instead of feeling like they are intruding into someone else's.

Clean, clean, clean. We recommend having a professional cleaner come in right before your home is listed.

Remove clutter and store away as much as you can.

Eliminate bad odors. You may have gotten used to smells in your home, but home buyers will be able to quickly pick up on pet and smoke odors.

Keep your decor and furniture simple and light. You want to showcase the size of the home without it being overwhelmed by too much stuff.

06 MARKETING elements

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Make sure that the photos and descriptions are clear, attractive and relevant. Be sure to also market your home with bright, clear, and different photo angles. Buyers will feel more comfortable with more photos. These are the first impressions of your home to a potential buyer and you want to ensure your home is a vision of opportunity.

Be sure to list your house on several different platforms. You don't want to miss out on any opportunities!

quick note!

Your real estate agent can work with you to provide all kinds of marketing materials, from brochures to online listings to get your home noticed.

07 OFFERS & NEGOTIATIONS

During this time, you will be able to accept the offer, negotiate and make a counteroffer, or reject the offer. If you receive multiple offers, your real estate agent will help you negotiate with the buyers to find a price that you are happy with.

Be prepared for obstacles and hiccups! They can happen during this phase, but that doesn't mean the sale is over.

a reminder

Ensure that the process is transparent and that all information provided to the buyers is accurate and up to date.

08 UNDER CONTRACT

The offer will officially become binding once the buyer and the seller both agree to the terms of the contract (which includes the price). Some things that need to occur before the closing process can commence:

Home inspection | Title Search | Final walkthrough with the buyer

CLOSING ON THE home

Closing is the final step in your home selling process. You will take a final walk-through with the buyer just before closing to assure that negotiated work has been completed and everything is in working order.

The closing process itself requires a lot of paperwork and patience. Be prepared with your government issued photo ID, and any documents required by the title company or loan officer.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The deed to the house will be delivered to the purchaser. The ownership is transferred to the purchaser. Any other documents including financing, insurance, and legal documents are exchanged.

note

Once agreed on, the negotiated purchase price is paid to the seller and any other associated fees.

congratulations YOU'VE SOLD YOUR HOME!

LIFE OF AN escrow

YOUR ESCROW OFFICER – OPENS ESCROW

where all funds and documents to close the home are set aside. You may have to make a deposit of earnest money, which eventually goes toward closing costs and/or purchase price.

THE ESCROW OFFICER – ORDERS A TITLE COMMITMENT

a promise to provide title insurance for your property. A title search is performed of the public record pertaining to your property, and the title commitment is issued.

HOME INSPECTOR & LOAN OFFICER

To ensure your future home is worth as much as you've offered, your lender orders an appraisal. At this point, you can hire a home inspector if you want to further assess the condition of the property. Your lender may also request additional documents.

4

ESCROW OFFICER

The title company receives the loan documents from your lender, and your escrow officer prepares the remainder of the closing documents.

ESCROW OFFICER – BUYERS & SELLERS

You and the Seller have separate appointments to sign the documents and the title company's office. Be sure to bring your ID and cashier's check (or ask your escrow officer for wiring instructions) to pay the remainder of the purchase price and any closing costs.

THE TITLE COMPANY

The title company ensures all conditions of the contract are met, records the documents, closes the escrow, and disburses funds.

7

YOUR REAL ESTATE AGENT

will provide you the keys to your new home, and your title company provides you title insurance policy!
