HOURLY RATES (125.00/hour):

Generally, hourly rates will not be approved. The fee schedule above contemplates the usual work necessary to reach each stage of trial including setting up files, sending normal correspondence, communication with clients, communication with opposing counsel, review of discovery, filing of standard pretrial motions and court appearances.

When a fixed rate is provided, an hourly rate will not, normally, be approved. The Court understands that some cases may involve significantly more time expenditures than the average misdemeanor. If Counsel believes a case is qualifies, they should notify the Court as soon as possible that hourly billing is requested. If hourly rates are approved, counsel must submit an itemized statement reflecting the date, service performed, and time expended with the request for payment form.

EXTRAORDINARY CASES:

Although rare in misdemeanor cases, the Court recognizes there are some cases requiring significantly more work than a typical misdemeanor case. These include cases involving scientific investigation, forensic financial investigations, large amounts of documents or other such measures. If Counsel believes a case falls into this category, they should submit those cases for payment on an hourly basis ONLY AFTER PRIOR APPROVAL.

EXPENSES:

Court appointed counsel will be reimbursed for necessary expenses. Request for experts or investigators must be approved in advance. Requests for experts or investigators may be made ex parte.

REQUEST FOR PAYMENT:

Request for payment forms should be submitted via e-file within 30 days after the disposition of the case except in trials.

A payment voucher should be submitted for each defendant.
