

Pioneers of the Kilcoy District of Depression,
War and Peace. , Volume 3, 1920 - 1950

Cost - $25.00 each plus postage

A follow-up to Volume 2, Volume 3 is a representation of the social history of the era, telling of the lives of new settlers, the new business people, the returned soldier and those then involved in World War II. It tells of the timber, dairy and cattle industries, of those on the land and in the timber trade who continued to follow in the footsteps of their forefather, and the social and cultural happenings and changes that developed as a result of the effects of war and the Great Depression.
