The Kilcoy District Historical Society Inc. was formed in 1998 to preserve the history of Kilcoy and the surrounding districts. Since then, thousands of photographs of the Kilcoy area and surrounding districts have been scanned and re-photographed. Many family histories have been written about the pioneering families of Kilcoy and the surrounding districts. All are available for perusal at the Hall of History in Yowie Park.

Our Mission Statement:

The Kilcoy District Historical Society Inc. will collect, document, record, preserve and display items, objects, photographs, family history and other materials which pertain to all aspects of life and history in the Kilcoy District.

KDHS Inc. will act as the custodian of the collection for the benefit of future generations by providing facilities, research, relevant displays and publication of books and newsletters which highlight broader subject areas of the collection.
