

Telecom Aerial Lineman

Position Summary:

The Lineman safely performs all tasks associated with maintaining and building overhead infrastructure with fiber optic and copper cable.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Responsible for ensuring all assigned projects meet company safety standards and work methods.
- Duties include, but are not limited to, pole transfers, pole placements, and pole removals. Will be responsible for wreck outs, new cable installs, strand building, lashing, and framing techniques, among other duties.
- Will be expected to analyze job locations for utility lines, permitting, and traffic control in order to complete construction activities without compromised quality, safety incidents, or any type of property damage.
- Expected to complete daily inspections and reporting of maintenance issues on company vehicles, trailers, and equipment
- Physical demands include climbing, lifting, pushing, pulling, walking, standing, and driving.
- Must be able to work in adverse climate conditions.
- May work alone or as part of a crew.
- May be required to perform laborer duties, especially during learning and training phases of the position.
- Must maintain a professional working attitude with internal team members and external customers, clients, and vendors.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Job Details:

- Full Time - Hourly $26-$32 (Depending on Experience)
- Day Shift
- Some night shifts
- Overtime
- Travel Required
- Medical/Dental Benefits after 60 days

Requirements:

High School Diploma or GED

Valid Driver's License

Clean Driving Record