AND BY-LAWS

THE AMERICAN LEGION

DEPARTMENT OF ARKANSAS

AS ADOPTED AUGUST 19, 1931
AND LAST Amended to June 22, 2019
DEPARTMENT CONVENTION, North LITTLE ROCK, AR

OF
THE AMERICAN LEGION

PREAMBLE

For God and country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state, and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to Posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I

NAME

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF ARKANSAS.

ARTICLE II

NATURE

Section 1. The American Legion, Department of Arkansas, is a civilian organization; membership therein does not affect nor increase liability for military or police service. Rank does not exist in the Legion; no members shall be addressed by his military or naval title in any convention or meeting of the Legion.

Section 2. The American Legion shall be absolutely non-political, and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

Section 3. Each member shall perform his full duty as a citizen according to his own conscience and understanding.

ARTICLE III

ORGANIZATION

Section 1. The American Legion, Department of Arkansas, shall be organized into areas, districts, and Posts.

ARTICLE IV

ELIGIBILITY AND MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Any person shall be eligible for membership in The American Legion who was a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or Air Force of the United States and assigned to active duty at some time during any of the following periods: April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918; December 7, 1941, to September 2, 1945; June 25, 1950, to January 31, 1955; December 22, 1961, to May 7, 1975; August 24, 1982, to July 31, 1984; December 20, 1989, to January 31, 1990; August 2, 1990, to the date of cessation of hostilities as determined by the Government of the United States; all dates inclusive or who, being a citizen of the United States at the time of his entry therein, served on active duty in the armed forces of any of the government associated with the United States during any of said periods; provided, however, that such service shall have been terminated by honorable discharge or honorable separation, or continued honorably after any of said periods; provided, further, that no person shall be entitled to membership who, being in such service during any of said periods, refused on conscientious, political or other grounds to subject himself to military discipline or unqualified service

Section 2. There shall be no form or class of membership except an active membership and dues shall be paid annually or for life.

Section 3. No person may be a member at any one time of more than one Post.

Section 4. Members may be suspended or expelled from the Legion only upon a proper showing of cause. Charges shall be based upon disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty, or conduct unbecoming a member of The American Legion. All charges must be made under oath in writing by the accusers, and no member in good standing shall lose his membership until given a fair trial in such manner and form as provided by the By-Laws of this Department.

Section 5. Any member who has been suspended or expelled has the right of appeal to the Department Executive Committee, according to the provision in the By-Laws of the Department. The decision of the Department Executive Committee shall be final.

Section 6. No person, who has been expelled by a Post, shall be admitted to membership in another Post, without the consent of the expelling Post, except that where such consent has been asked for and denied by such Post he may then appeal to the Department Executive Committee of the Department of the expelling Post for permission to apply for membership in another Post, and shall be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

ARTICLE V

DEPARTMENT CONVENTION

Section 1. The legislative body of The American Legion, Department of Arkansas, shall be the Department Convention to be held annually at a place to be fixed by the preceding Department convention four (4) years preceding; provided, however, that in the event of an emergency the place may be fixed by the Department Executive Committee. The time of the Department Convention shall be fixed by the Department Executive Committee.

Section 2. In the Department convention each Post having a paid-up membership equal to or in excess of the number required for granting a charter shall be entitled to one delegate and to one additional delegate for each 25 paid up members, or major fraction thereof, and to one alternate for each delegate. Paid up members as used herein means those members whose current dues have been received by the Department Headquarters ten days prior to the meeting of the convention as delegates to which they are elected. The delegates shall be elected at regular Post meetings to be held not less than two weeks before the Department Convention.

Section 3. Each delegate shall be entitled to one vote; provided his/her name shall have been certified to the Department Adjutant as a delegate by noon on the opening day of the convention, and provided further the convention registration fee fixed by the Convention or the Department Executive Committee shall have been paid to the Department Headquarters or registration committee. Each Post shall be responsible for registering its full delegate strength. The vote of any certified and registered delegate absent and not represented by an alternate shall be cast by the majority of the delegates present from his/her Post.

Section 4. A quorum shall exist at a Department Convention when fifty-one percent of the registered delegates are present or represented as provided in Section 3 of this Article.

Section 5. The rules of procedure at the Department Convention shall be those set forth in Robert's Rules of Order or by convention mandate.

ARTICLE VI

DEPARTMENT OFFICERS

Section 1. The Department Convention will elect a Department Commander, a Department First Vice Commander; a Department Second Vice Commander; a Department Third Vice Commander; a Department Fourth Vice Commander; and a Department Historian. The Department of Arkansas will be divided into four areas with four Districts per area, these to be known as North-Western Area, with Districts No's. 1, 2, 13 and 16; North-Eastern Area, with Districts No's. 3, 4, 5 and 6; South-Western Area with Districts No's. 11, 12, 14 and 15; South-Eastern Area, with Districts No's. 7, 8, 9 and 10. A Senior Vice Commander shall be selected from the North-Western Area for the Legion year of 1967, and each succeeding year the Senior Vice Commander shall be designated by moving clockwise around the State. This would enable each Area to have the Senior Vice-Commandership every four years. No person shall be eligible to succeed themselves in the Office of Department Commander or Department Vice Commander.

Section 2. Such officers shall take office at the adjournment of the Department Convention at which they are elected and shall serve until the adjournment of the succeeding Department Convention or until their successors are chosen. A Department Chaplain shall be appointed by the incoming Department Commander. Vacancies in these offices occurring between Department Conventions shall be filled by the Department Executive Committee.

Section 3. The Department Executive Committee at its first meeting shall elect a Department Finance Officer, a Department Judge Advocate and a Department Service Officer upon the nomination of the Department Commander, such officers to hold office at the pleasure of the electing power. Vacancies occurring in the above offices shall be filled by appointment of the Department Commander subject to the approval of the Department Executive Committee at its next regular meeting. All persons having the custody of funds shall give adequate bonds, which shall be approved by the Department Executive Committee.

Section 4. All past Department Commanders while in good standing in their respective Posts shall be life members of the Department Executive Committee without a vote, and shall be life delegates to all Department Conventions without a vote, except that the Junior Past Department Commander shall be entitled to vote at Department Convention and shall be a voting member of the Department Executive Committee.

Section 5. The Department Executive Committee at its first meeting following the adoption of this Section shall elect a Department Adjutant upon the recommendation of the Department Commander. Such Department Adjutant shall hold office until removed for cause by a two-thirds vote of the Department Executive Committee. Any vacancy occurring in the office of Department Adjutant shall be filled in like manner. The Department Adjutant shall give adequate bond, which shall be approved by the Department Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEEMAN

Section 1. The Department Convention shall elect one National Executive Committeeman and one Alternate National Executive Committeeman to represent the Department on the National Executive Committee. The term of office of the National Executive Committeeman and the Alternate National Executive Committeeman shall be two years and shall commence immediately upon the adjournment of the National Convention next ensuing after the election and shall end at the adjournment of the second next succeeding National Convention.

Section 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of National Executive Committeeman, or Alternate National Executive Committeeman, a successor shall be elected by the Department Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VIII

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Between Department Conventions the administrative power shall be vested in the Department Executive Committee, which shall be composed of the Department Commander, the Junior Past Department Commander, the Department Vice Commanders, the Department Judge Advocate, the Department Finance Officer, the Department Chaplain (Voice, without vote), the Department Historian, the National Executive Committeeman, the Department Service Officer (Voice without vote) and the District Executive Committeemen. In the temporary absence of any District Committeeman, the District Commander or District Vice Commander shall serve as an alternate. Vacancies occurring in the office of the District Executive Committeemen because of death, resignation or removal from the district in the first year of the committeeman term shall be filled by the District Commander or District Vice Commander, serving as an alternate, until the Department Convention, at which time a committeeman who shall have been elected by the district in convention to fill the unexpired term, shall take office.

Section 2. District Executive Committeemen shall be elected for a term of two years at District Conventions to be held at least twenty (20) days and not more than one hundred twenty (120) days preceding the Department Convention. Committeemen are eligible to succeed themselves in office. Their terms of office shall commence immediately upon the adjournment of the Department Convention, next ensuing after their election, and shall end at the conclusion of the second succeeding annual Department Convention, unless otherwise terminated in accordance with provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Department. Their terms shall be staggered, odd-numbered districts electing in odd years and even numbered districts electing in even years.

ARTICLE IX

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

Section 1. Districts shall be defined by the By-Laws and shall be composed of the Posts within their respective areas.

Section 2. Each district shall have a District Commander, District Vice Commander, District Executive Committeeman, and a District Adjutant. The District Adjutant shall be appointed by the District Commander. The term of office of such District Adjutant shall be one year, unless otherwise terminated in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Department. The term of office of each District Commander and District Vice Commander shall commence immediately upon adjournment of the Department Convention next ensuing after the election and shall end at the adjournment of the next succeeding Department Convention. District Commanders are permitted to serve a second one year term of office, when and where desired provided that no District Commander holds the office more than two consecutive terms.

Section 3. Counties having two or more Posts may elect a county commander who shall assist the District Commander in his county in all Legion activities. District officials (except District Adjutant) shall be elected at a District Convention to be held at least twenty (20) days and not more than one hundred twenty (120) days preceding the Department Convention. The District Commander and District Vice Commander may be elected from the same county, provided, however, the District Commander and District Vice Commander may not be elected from the same Post.

Section 4. In the event such district officers are not elected as herein provided, then the incoming Department Commander shall appoint a District Commander and Vice Commander.

Section 5. Notice of the time and place of District Convention shall be given in writing by the District Commander to all Posts within their respective districts at least fifteen (15) days prior to holding such convention provided such notice signed by the District Commander and published in The Arkansas Legionnaire at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the District Convention shall be considered as meeting the above requirements for written notice to all Posts. Representation and voting power for District Conventions shall be the same as in Department Conventions.

Section 6. In the event of a vacancy in the office of District Commander the District Vice Commander shall succeed to that office and in the event of a vacancy in both offices a District Commander shall be appointed by the Department Commander subject to the ratification of the Department Executive Committee at the next regular meeting.

ARTICLE X

POST ORGANIZATION

Section 1. Those who desire to form a Post shall make an application for a charter to the Commander of The American Legion, Department of Arkansas. When such application is approved by the Commander of the Department, or by the Department Executive Committee, the charter will be issued by the National Commander and the National Adjutant upon receipt of the application properly executed by the charter members of the proposed Post. Post charters shall be countersigned by the Commander and the Adjutant of The American Legion, Department of Arkansas.

Section 2. The Minimum membership of a Post shall be determined by the Executive Committee of the Department.

Section 3. The Department may prescribe the constitution of its Posts. Post charters may be suspended, canceled, or revoked by the Department Executive Committee as provided in the By-Laws.

Section 4. No Post shall be named after any living person.

ARTICLE XI

FINANCE

Section 1. The revenue of The American Legion, Department of Arkansas, shall be derived from annual membership dues and from such other sources as may be approved by the Department Executive Committee.

Section 2. Each Post, for each of its individual members, shall pay annually to The Department of Arkansas as Department Dues a sum to be fixed by Convention mandate and as National dues such sum as may be fixed by The National Organization.

Section 3. The annual dues shall be collected by each Post and transmitted to Department Headquarters.

Section 4. Annual dues shall be payable October 20th of each year.

ARTICLE XII

THE ARKANSAS LEGIONNAIRE

Section 1. The Arkansas Legionnaire shall be the official publication of The Department and shall be published under supervision and direction of the Executive Committee, and shall be issued at such intervals and in such size and form as the Executive Committee shall direct. The Executive Committee is authorized to set aside funds necessary for the publication of the Arkansas Legionnaire.

ARTICLE XIII

DISCIPLINE

Section 1. The Department Executive Committee, after notice and a hearing, may suspend or with the approval of the National Executive Committee, revoke the charter of a Post which violates this constitution or which fails adequately to discipline any of its members for any such violation, and may provide for the government and administration of such Post during such suspension or upon such revocation.

ARTICLE XIV

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS OF OFFICE

Section 1. Any Legionnaire who is a member of a Post within the Department of Arkansas shall be considered a resident of the State of Arkansas regardless of where the Legionnaire domiciles. Residency shall be defined as the City in which the Post was chartered and where a Legionnaire maintains their membership and pays their annual dues known as their Home Post .

Section 2. Any Legionnaire who desires to hold any elected or appointed office within the Department of Arkansas shall be a member of a Post in the district they wish to represent as defined by Article XIV Section One.

ARTICLE V

CHARTERS

Section 1. The Department Executive Committee may order the suspension of a charter for a period not to extend beyond the closing of the next succeeding Department Convention, as a disciplinary measure, or pending action relative to final revocation. The cancellation of a charter is a matter of business wholly, the request being taken through proper channels to the National Executive Committee for final action. A cancellation shall be in order where two or more Posts merge, where a Post voluntarily ceases to function, or under such other conditions as might make such action necessary within the Department.

Section 2. Any Post failing to meet the obligations imposed upon it by the Constitution and By-Laws, or ceasing to function for six months as an American Legion Post, or refusing to pay the per capita tax due to the State and National Departments, shall upon order of the Department Commander surrender its charter. Upon failure to surrender such charter, immediate steps may be taken for its revocation.

Section 3. The procedure for the revocation, cancellation, or suspension of Post charters shall be in accordance with the uniform code of procedure for the revocation, cancellation, or suspension of Post charters adopted by the National Executive Committee pursuant to provisions of the National By-Laws.

Section 4. In case of revocation of the charter of a Post of The American Legion, Department of Arkansas, organized under that charter; such Post shall cease operations and turn over to the Department Headquarters, not only its charter but all records and properties in the possession of the Post.

POST ORGANIZATION

Section 1. Each Post shall have a headquarters and a Post Office address, to which all notices and documents shall be sent. It shall be the duty of the Post at the time of application for a charter to notify the Department Adjutant of such address, and subsequently of any changes in address. All notices and documents shall be held to have been duly sent to or served on such Post when mailed to its last address so furnished. In the event, a Post fails to furnish an address at the time of making application of the charter, any notice or documents mailed to it at the address of its commander or adjutant or other members signing the application shall be held to have been duly served upon such Post.

Section 2. Each Post shall have a Constitution and By-Laws to govern its affairs and shall have a Post Commander, such a number of Vice Commanders as is provided by the Post Constitution and By-Laws, a Post Adjutant, and a Post Finance Officer and such other officers as may be provided by the Post Constitution and By-Laws. The Post Commander may be removed or suspended from office by the Department Commander, with the approval of a majority of the members of the Department Executive Committee, for inefficiency, inattention to duty, disloyalty, dishonesty or conduct unbecoming a member of The American Legion. In the event, charges are preferred seeking removal or suspension from the office of the Post Commander, the accused shall be given ten days' written notice, sent by registered mail, return receipt requested. Such notice shall specify the time and the place of a meeting of the Department Executive Committee at which such charges shall be considered and shall contain a copy of such charges. Opportunity shall be given for the introduction of evidence relating to the guilt or the innocence of the accused, and upon the completion of the testimony, the committee shall find the accused guilty or not guilty. If the accused be found guilty, the committee shall by majority vote decide whether the accused shall be removed or suspended, and if suspended, the length of such suspension. The action of the Executive Committee shall be final.

Section 2-A. Post officers shall be elected and installed annually before the Department Convention. It shall be the duty of the Post Adjutant to certify to Department Headquarters, on forms provided for that purpose, the names and eligibility of the newly elected officers immediately after their election. In the event a Post does not elect, install, and certify to Department Headquarters Post officers as provided in this Section, the District Commander shall appoint necessary officers for such Post.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of all Post Adjutants to submit to Department Headquarters within fifteen days of election or appointment of Post Officers copies of documents establishing eligibility for membership in The American Legion in accordance with the qualifications prescribed by the Department Constitution. If such evidence of eligibility be not submitted within the above required time, the office of the person failing to submit such proof shall be declared vacant by the Department Commander and shall be filled in the same manner as a vacancy in such office otherwise occurring.

Section 4. Each Post shall submit a copy of its Constitution and By-Laws for approval of the Department Executive Committee. In the absence of the adoption of a Post constitution and/or By-Laws and its approval by the Department Executive Committee as herein provided, the Post Constitution and By-Laws shall be outlined in The Department Constitution and By-Laws and The National Organization.

ARTICLE VII

DISCIPLINE OF POSTS AND POST MEMBERS

Section 1. Each Post of The American Legion, Department of Arkansas, shall be the judge of its own membership, subject to the restrictions of the Constitution and By-Laws of The Department and The National organization.

Section 2. In the event, charges are preferred seeking expulsion or suspension of a member the procedure shall be as follows:

The accused shall be given ten days' written notice sent by registered mail, return receipt requested. Such notice shall specify the time and place of a regular meeting at which such charges shall be considered and shall contain a copy of such charges. The accusers and the accused shall be given an opportunity to introduce such evidence as they may see fit relating to the guilt or innocence of the accused and upon the completion of the testimony, the Post by a majority vote shall find the accused guilty or not guilty. If the accused be found guilty, the Post shall by majority vote decide whether the accused shall be expelled or suspended, and if suspended, the length of such suspension. In the event of suspension or expulsion, a copy of all proceedings, including the testimony and the verdict of the Post shall be sent to Department Headquarters within ten days after the hearing.

Section 3. Any member who has been suspended or expelled from a Post of this Department, and desires to appeal from the Post action shall give notice of appeal to the Department Commander who shall appoint a Sub-Committee of not more than five, nor less than three members, of the Department Executive Committee, for the purpose of passing upon the action of the Post in suspending or expelling such member. This committee shall meet prior to the meeting of the Department Executive Committee next following the notice of such appeal and to this committee shall be referred the complete record in writing of said suspension or expulsion with such exceptions thereto as are made by the expelled member. This committee shall review the cause and recommend to the Department Executive Committee the action to be taken thereon. The Department Judge Advocate shall be an Ex-Officio member of said Sub-Committee.

Section 4. Failure of a Post, expelling or suspending a member, to furnish a full and complete record of the trial and proceedings had of the accused, shall be considered an abandonment of the charges and the accused shall be reinstated to membership upon application to the Department Adjutant.

Section 5. A member whose dues for the current year have not been paid by January 1st shall be classed as delinquent. If his dues are paid on or before February 1st, he shall be automatically reinstated. If he is still delinquent after February 1st, he shall be suspended from all privileges. If he is still, under such suspension on June 30th of such year, his membership in The American Legion shall be forfeited. A member so suspended or whose membership has been so forfeited may be reinstated to active membership in good standing by a vote of the Post and payment of current dues for the year in which the reinstatement occurs. Provided, however, that the Posts, Departments and the National organization may waive the provisions hereof, upon payment of dues for the year in which reinstatement occurs, with reference to former members who have been prevented from the payment of dues by reason of active military service. The Post, at its option, may also require a member whose membership has been so forfeited to pay one year's arrears in dues, as a condition precedent to reinstatement.

ARTICLE VIII

MONEYS AND COLLECTIONS

Section 1. All Department and Post officials handling American Legion moneys shall be properly bonded with a good and solvent bonding and surety company, as surety, to cover double the average amount of money handled in a single year. In case of delinquencies in the payment of amounts due Department or National Headquarters, action shall be taken at once by the proper officials to bring about a speedy and complete settlement. The bonds provided by Department or Post officials shall be approved by the Department Judge Advocate and the Department Executive Committee.

Section 2. Department Headquarters shall, should it be deemed advisable, detail special auditors to investigate the membership roll and financial statement of any of its Posts.

POLICY COMMITTEE

Section 1. There is hereby created in the Arkansas Department of The American Legion, a permanent Policy Committee to be composed of five members who shall be appointed by the Department Commander upon ratification of the Department Executive Committee.

One from the North-West Area, two years.
One from the South-West Area, three years.
One from the South-East Area, four years.
The fifth member will serve at-large for five years.

As vacancies occur thereafter by the expiration of term, their successors shall be appointed by the Commander then in office, for a term of five years. Vacancies that occur prior to the expiration of the term for which the member is chosen may be filled by the Department Commander for the remainder of the term.

Section 2. In order to be eligible to serve on the Policy Committee, an appointee must be eligible and in good standing at the time of his appointment. He shall understand and be in sympathy with the purposes, policies, and programs of the Legion, a person of integrity and solicitous for the welfare of the organization.

Section 3. Before an appointee may serve on the Policy Committee, he must first have been approved by the Department Executive Committee, the members of which shall first satisfy themselves as to his fitness and qualifications. Any member or appointee so chosen may be removed from membership on the Policy Committee by the Department Executive Committee for cause, or by convention mandate.

Section 4. The Department Commander, Department Adjutant, and the Judge Advocate shall be eligible to meet with the Policy Committee and take part in the discussions and give such advice and recommendations as may be proper.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the Policy Committee to determine the Legion policy of the Department of Arkansas.

(a) It shall see that the mandates of the Department and National Conventions and orders of the Department Executive Committee are put into full force and effect;

(b) Fix the policy of carrying out said mandates and orders;

(c) Ensure the carrying on of a complete and well rounded Legion program;

(d) As set up by the Finance Committee, regulate travel and prescribe the travel allowance, forms of receipts, vouchers, and disbursements of all Department Officials and representatives on Department business;

(e) Coordinate expenses of the Department in keeping with the rules and mandates of the convention and the Executive Committee.

(f) Coordinate the functions and duties of Legion officials and committees, the Detachment Commander and other officers of the Sons of the Legion;

(g) The Committee herein provided shall be notified at the same time as are the members of the Executive Committee and the Finance Committee, of all meetings of these Committees; and, shall sit with these Committees in an advisory capacity without a vote. (Amended July 21, 1956.)

Section 6. The Committee herein provided shall as soon as feasible submit to the Executive Committee, for its consideration and action, any new or revised policy in keeping with this resolution.

Section 7. Any policy that may be contrary to Legion interest, or otherwise, is subject to review and may be changed by the Department Convention or Department Executive Committee, provided that any policy adopted shall in no way conflict with State and National American Legion convention mandates.

AMENDMENTS

ARTICLE XVI

AMERICAN LEGION DEPARTMENT OF ARKANSAS FOUNDATION, INC.

Section 1. The Foundation shall be a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Arkansas. It is being created to financially support, to the extent of its assets, the endeavors carried out from time to time by The American Legion Department of Arkansas, for those charitable purposes recognized under the Foundation's Articles of Incorporation, including financial support as to the following endeavors now conducted by the Department:

1. Rehabilitation, e.g. restoring Veterans' health and usefulness to society;
2. Teaching patriotism to children and youth;
3. The American Legion Baseball Program;
4. The American Legion Boys State Program;
5. Scholarships;
6. Oratorical Contest, e.g., subject of the U.S. Constitution;
7. Children and Youth programs addressing problem areas facing youth, e.g., drug abuse prevention, child abuse prevention and teenage suicide prevention;
8. Support of the Coudret Trust Endowment, under the auspices of the Department now operating in the State of Arkansas, whose income is used to preserve the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual welfare of the children and to provide scholarships;
9. The Department Disaster Relief Fund;
10. The Department Building Fund;
11. Support of Scouting – Boys and Girls;
12. Honor Guards for Veterans' funerals;
13. Any other future charitable programs of similar purpose and kind.

Section 2. The Foundation's organizational structure shall be as defined by its bylaws. The Department Adjutant shall serve as an Ex-Officio member of the Foundation and shall countersign all checks.

Section 3. The management of the affairs and business of the Foundation shall be vested in its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have full, unqualified and unrestricted control of all the activities, funds, property, and employees of the Foundation and they may do any and all things in their discretion necessary or advisable for the accomplishment of the Foundation's objectives.

Section 4. The Bylaws of the Foundation may be amended at any time upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all voting members of the Foundation's Board of Directors, subject to the confirmation by the Department Executive Committee, provided that no such amendment shall be made which is inconsistent with the purposes imposed by the Foundation's Articles of Incorporation or which shall jeopardize the Foundation's classification as an exempt Section 501(c)(3) entity under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or under any comparable provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.) Notice of such meeting shall be given fourteen (14) days advance written notice with all provisions to be voted on in the notice.

Section 5. No Director, officer or employee of the Foundation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the Foundations assets in the dissolution of the corporation. The corporation shall be dissolved when The American Legion, Department of Arkansas is dissolved, terminated or otherwise ceases to exist. At that time, all then-existing funds of the corporation, which remain after paying or making provisions for payment of all terminating expenses of the corporation, shall be paid over and distributed, as the Corporation Board of Directors shall then determine, for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code) or shall be distributed, as said Board shall then determine, to the Federal, State or Local Government for a public purpose.

ARTICLE XVII

AMERICAN LEGION RIDERS
