WHO WE ARE

- Multiplier Basketball is a Central Indiana-based basketball program. The Multiplier Basketball program is focused on building young men's competitive spirit and emotional resiliency through the game of basketball.
- We strive to teach, develop, and offer youth the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of basketball. By using the game of basketball, we will instill life lessons such as character, teamwork, discipline, and sportsmanship. With these goals we hope to create great student-athletes who will eventually become leaders of their community and our country.
- Our coaches, players, and families work together to cultivate a motivating environment so every young man can reach their full potential. By cultivating this type of atmosphere, our goal is to prepare each player to pay it forward through acts of community service. Everyone at Multiplier Basketball is a volunteer.
- Multiplier Basketball operates under the auspices of a 20-point philosophy nested with military values and standards.
- Multiplier Basketball is a member of the PUMA NXT circuit.
- Multiplier Basketball was formed in 2021 by Andy Weaver.
- Multiplier Basketball is a 501(c)(3).

A group of basketball players and a coach are gathered around a large trophy. The players are wearing white jerseys with "MULTIPLIER" and their numbers (10, 3, 34, 4, 2, 1) on them. They are all wearing gold medals. The coach is on the left, wearing a grey polo shirt. The trophy is being held up by several players. The background is a plain grey wall.
