Please respond to the following questions:

1. What are the strengths of this intern?

Professor Charles can admirably balance authenticity and professionalism. Her genuine care for the students that she supervises, as well as their clients, is clear. Professor Charles provides room for her students to do their critical thinking and is patient in allowing them to work through solutions. She is in tune with the needs of her students as well. When I presented a client in class, she was able to tell that an extra layer of support was needed and quickly and efficiently offered to step in and provide that. She is knowledgeable, always able to provide resources for professional development or interventions for clients. Professor Charles has a holistic perspective in her instruction. She provides feedback and guidance regarding clients and works to create space for self-reflection.

2. What are the areas of improvement for this intern?

Having personally experienced significant growth and support this semester, with additional support from Professor Charles, an area for improvement would be for her to consider expanding access. It would be beneficial for her to explore small group consultations, which would allow more students to benefit from her mentorship.

3. Do you feel that this intern helped you to develop as a counselor? If so, how? If not, how could they have contributed more to your development as a counselor?

Yes, I feel that Professor Charles has contributed to my development as a counselor. She has offered guidance and deepened my understanding of the counseling profession. She models empathy, active listening, and rapport-building excellently. She has helped me to become more self-aware and to feel more confident when working with clients.
