PRINCIPAL TRAINER
RALPH T O'BRIEN

OVER 25 YEARS ASSISTING ORGANISATIONS TO PREVENT DATA HARMS

AAfter two decades of work at the forefront of the privacy sector, I have built my career around making the intricacies of Data Protection, Privacy & Security management understandable. I enjoy passing on my passion for privacy by translating often complicated legal concepts, into sustainable business processes.

You'll receive the services of an experienced consultant, speaker, trainer, auditor, negotiator and project manager. I use my knowledge of data protection laws and information governance standards to help businesses develop and grow, engage their stakeholders, and to deliver real value to my clients.
