

I Will in No Wise Cast Out John 6:35-40

A Saying of Christ About Himself

I am the Bread of Life

I am.... Occurs 38x in John

Jerusalem had a temple, He was the genuine temple where God met mankind.

Churches are anemic today because instead of feasting on the WORD, they are feasting on the WORLD. The average evangelical.....

A Saying of Christ About His People

They had seen Jesus, had seen his miracles but still didn't believe and wanted just one more miracle.

_____ the Father gives me....

Will Jesus ever cast anyone out?

There's no obstacle, no difficulty, no power of this world, the flesh or the devil himself that can prevent one from coming to Jesus. (Phillips)

The Geek Out.... A double negative

A Saying of Christ About His Father

Compare how the pharisees treated the man born blind and how Jesus treats his followers.

Jesus didn't despair in his mission, nor should we. Martin Luther: "He to whom God gives grace to come to Christ enjoys a great privilege, which lets him exult: The Father has given me to Christ."

What about weak believers who come to Jesus with doubts? Are they saved?

Someone who looks on the Son and believes never need fear death or judgment. If you hope to survive the judgment apart from Christ....

Look to Jesus in the morning, Look to Jesus at noonday, Look to Jesus at night. The door is not shut; for the gate of mercy closes not so long as the gate of life is open. COME TODAY. COME NOW.
