

You Shall Seek Me and Not Find Me.

John 7:25-36

I. Is the One They Want to Kill?

Why can't He just be silenced?

Jesus CRIED OUT

Jesus can't be silenced but he can be _____

Everything is under the immediate control of God.

We are _____ until our _____ is _____.

Those men could no more arrest Jesus than they could stop _____. (Pink)

II. Who Has Done More than Jesus?

Jesus fulfilled the Scriptures, He convinced millions that He was/is God, the Son in human flesh, He alone has answers to the deep issues of life.

Arch enemies who normally were at each other's throats were helping each other. Enemies will often become allies when fighting against the truth.

III. Where Will Jesus Go We Cannot Follow?

There is coming a time when people will not be able to follow Jesus. There's coming a time when men will seek salvation but it will be ____ and the door will be _____. Hell, itself is _____ known too late.

People today continue to miss salvation for many reasons....

The illustration of _____

In religious matters people are easily satisfied with very imperfect and superficial reasoning when they want to be satisfied and be spared further trouble.

No one confronts Jesus Christ and remains unchanged.
