

Psalm 19

I. God's Glory in His General Revelation

B. Revealed in the Believer

II. God's Glory in His Special Revelation
A. Stated in the Word

All of us are by nature, children of wrath; our souls are like the porches of Bethesda, in which are lodged a great many sick folk, blind, halt, withered and the Scriptures are like the pool of Bethesda...He that has anger's frenzy, being as furious as a lion, by stepping into this pool shall in good time become as gentle as a lamb; he that has the blindness of intemperance, by washing in this pool shall easily see his folly; he that has envy's rust, avarice's leprosy, luxury's palsy, shall have means and medicines here for the curing of his maladies. (C H Spurgeon quoting another author)
