The 8th Day?

JESUS STOOD AND CRIED OUT!

I. A Thirst

If anyone has a thirst.....

Even the wicked who've lived terribly?

Until we see that we are lost, we will not be saved.

The very first step to heaven is to be convinced we _____.

This thirst is an anxiety of soul, a conviction of sin. If a man is crushed under his sin, desire forgiveness, relief, that's what's reflected in "If any man thirsts."

There's no clearer proof of the fall of man, and the utter corruption of human nature, than the careless indifference of most people about their souls. (JC Ryle).

II. A Remedy

A gimmick remedy? Coming to Christ is turning away from the world. It's rejecting the ceremonies.. Who is invited to partake of the remedy? Only those who _____. It's simple. Let him come unto me.

III. A Promise

An abundance of blessings....

One of the clearest signs of the Holy Spirit's presence is genuine growth as He makes the Word of God alive within us. (Phillips)

There are states that are inevitable in a believer's life: _____, _____, and _____.
