

A Tale of Two Sinners Matthew 26:69 – 27:10

Intro

Peter is _____ accused.

Jesus denies nothing, Peter denies _____.

Jesus stands _____ gave his life for _____. Peter, denying Jesus, _____.

The Tale of Simon Peter

A slave girl? What did she want?

Just hours earlier.....unwavering loyalty

This 3rd year disciple, this leader of the disciples simply played _____.

Peter goes and stands with....

The 2nd denial, he swore with an oath.

The 3rd time, Peter curses.....

The rooster crows.....and the look of Jesus

Peter leaves and weeps bitterly.

Was Peter a coward?

If Peter failed so spectacularly.....

Peter was _____

Peter was standing with _____ not with _____.

Ryle “Men fall in private long before they fall in public.”

The Tale of Judas Iscariot

There’s never been a man.....

Someone could look the part yet.....

μετανοεω metanoeo μεταμελομαι metamelomai

One means to repent, the other to feel sorry.

Judas did what sinful depravity always does:

Conclusions

Like Peter and Judas, we are all _____.

In spite of Peter’s denials, Jesus _____.

Peter didn’t deserve reinstatement, nor do we. It is God’s nature to _____ us.

Today: Get right into Christ... (Spurgeon)