

Redeemed, How I Love to Proclaim It!

Psalm 107:1-9

Psalm 107 has this theme running through it: Guilt, Grace and Gratitude....

I. An Exhortation to Praise (1-3)

God is Good is the OT's equivalent to.....

Fervent in our praises of YHWH

Our sins they are many....

The invitation still goes out. He is still gathering His people from all over the world.

II. An Exhibition of God's Goodness (4-9)

Ps 107 has the common denominator of ____

Wandering in the wilderness

There's no path.....

The sinner cannot find his way to the city.

As the people of God, there's nothing for us in the wilderness.

Do you have an objective source of truth?

Many have perished in the wilderness looking for the city.

Life without Christ is hopeless and always leads to dying in the wilderness, searching for the city but never finding it.

There's many wrong ways but only ONE WAY into the city.

Thanks be to God, the One Way is open to people who have failed, who are broken, depressed and despondent.

People who have been taken by the hand and led out of the wilderness, delivered from sin into the city of life are _____ people.
