

Pastor Waylon Tyrone Knight

Rev. Waylon Knight is the son of Mrs. Mary Knight and the late Mr. Otis Knight. A native of Dublin, Georgia, he is a devoted member of Central Baptist Church, where Rev. Ellis A. Carswell serves as pastor. Over the years, Rev. Knight has faithfully served in numerous roles within the church, including choir member, teen Sunday School teacher, and administrative assistant to the pastor. In March 1996, he was ordained as a deacon. He was later licensed to preach the gospel on February 28, 2010, delivering his initial sermon titled "Issues" from Matthew 9:20.

Rev. Knight has been actively involved in both local and state conventions of the General Missionary Baptist Convention of Georgia. He has served as an instructor for youth and laymen's classes in the 1st Rehoboth Association. Notably, he also served as President and Director of the General Missionary Baptist Youth Convention of Georgia, becoming the longest-serving leader in the organization's history.

Educationally, Rev. Knight holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from Georgia College in Milledgeville, Georgia, a Master of Science degree in School Guidance and Counseling from Fort Valley State University, and an Educational Specialist degree in Educational Leadership from Cambridge College. He has also completed coursework toward a doctorate in School Administration at the University of Southern Mississippi. Professionally, he currently serves as Assistant Principal at Lamar County Middle School.

On December 20, 2013, Rev. Knight was called to serve as the 11th pastor of West Mount Sinai Baptist Church and was officially installed on Sunday, February 16, 2014. His inaugural sermon, titled "Begin the Year with God: Lose the Weight," was taken from Hebrews 12:1-4.

Since his arrival at West Mount Sinai, Rev. Knight has led numerous initiatives and accomplishments that have contributed to the spiritual growth and edification of God's kingdom.

There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. And He gave some to be apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry, and for the edifying of the body of Christ, until we all come into the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

#599; The Christian Minister: 2 Corinthians 4

Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy we faint not,

But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the Word of God deceitfully; but by manifesting the truth we commend ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

But if our Gospel be hid, it is hid to those who are lost,

In whom the god of this world hath blinded, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

For we who live are always being delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

We, having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written: "I believed and therefore have I spoken" — we also believe and therefore speak, Knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise us up also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

For all things are for your sakes, that, through the thanksgiving of many, the abundant grace might redound to the glory of God.

For this cause we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory,

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.
