

Who I am:

Passionate, Patient, and Persistent.

Sissys Legacy was founded on the belief that not all dogs are the same. They each have their own unique traits and mannerisms, and therefore require their own unique and specialized training.

Whether it's for basic obedience, Service work or behavioral issues, I am focused on training your dog and teaching you how to effectively communicate with them. This method of training is full of fun techniques that will give you and your dog a happier life together.
