Presentation Skills

Luminaries Consulting, LLC

Even the best can struggle to influence and inspire action in others! No matter how good or important a message is, if it's not delivered in an interesting and effective way, chances are it won't be heard at all. Participants will practice delivering presentations that get results and will receive feedback/coaching which can be immediately used to refine newly learned skills.
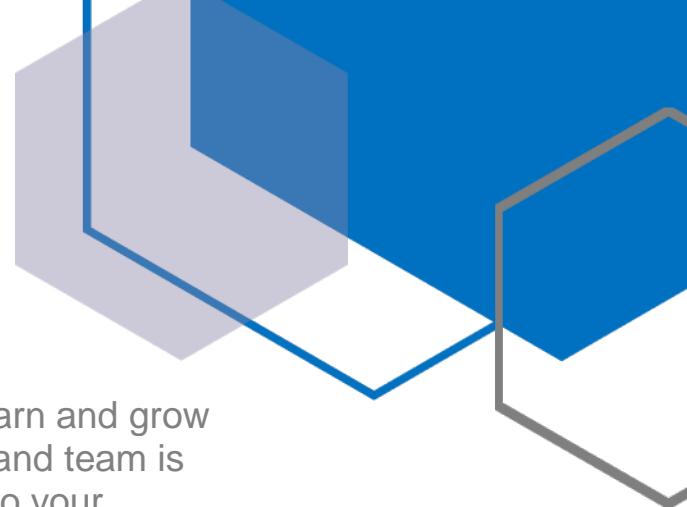

Audience

Individuals who present to small or large groups and want to sharpen their skills and gain confidence. This course will benefit those who are less experienced and are looking to build confidence, as well as those who are experienced and looking to fine tune their skills.

Participants will be able to

- Gain confidence in speaking to, and interacting with, small and large groups
- Create key messages that will resonate with your audience
- Determine what visual aids and support will best support your key messages
- Enhance your verbal and non-verbal skills to achieve your desired outcomes

The organization will gain

- An employee base who is more confident in their ability to influence when presenting
- Techniques and tools to prepare messaging that is tailored to the audience with a clear, actionable objective in place
- 1x1 coaching tailored to each individual
