$0 Reviews are and always will be FREE.

$0 EARLY REVIEW REQUESTS!

If an author wants to have a review for a release date, and wants an EARLY REVIEW, prior to its release date in order to include (if the author wishes) the review on the book cover, back cover, inside the book's acknowledgement page, the author can request that. The request will need to include the deadline for the review, and it should be at least three months prior to the release, sooner if possible. It's not part of a TIER, but as a request for those who have an upcoming release.

$0 STANDARD review ONLY posted on Amy's Bookshelf Reviews blog (and shared on Facebook and X).

TIERS: Individual bookshelves have TIERS. There are two bookshelves and a Release Date/Express Release Date Review Calendar. There are STANDARD TIERS for each bookshelf, and then the Basic TIER, Plus TIER, and if you're a Legacy author, you can purchase a Lifetime Legacy Author Pass (which will give you a plus package EVERY TIME you get a request, and it is only a flat fee of $100.)

AUDIOBOOK REQUESTS AND WEBSITE POLICIES (Audiobooks are separate reviews from print reviews.) Reviews are based on content and narration, as well as quality.

- Starting October 1 2025, only review requests for audiobooks will be accepted from authors who have had their book published by ProAudioVoices. It is not a biased decision, but Amy's Bookshelf Reviews is no longer going to review audiobooks, unless from the company because of a standing agreement.
- UPDATE TO 2026: Audiobooks that are made from other companies, or using virtual voice will only be reviewed if the author is a Legacy Author, and there is a corresponding print book, that will also be reviewed.
