

Course Syllabus: Supporting Muslim Students

Number of Credits: 1*

Course Instructors: Miriam Woods, Madi Brauer, and Jordan Mix

Course Description:

With over 1.6 billion people who actively practice the faith and its traditions, Islam is the second largest world religion (World Atlas, 2017). Today, teachers and administrators are seeing an increase in students who actively practice their faith in school, are more involved in social justice issues, and have a desire to have updated and relevant curricula in their school.

This course will cover the Islamic faith, its traditions, and the experience of Muslim students in today's educational setting. Participants will be guided through the process of supporting Muslim students, and be given ideas on how to ensure students with different faith traditions and beliefs find a voice to express their needs and interests in their classrooms.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify key concepts facts about Islamic faith
- Demonstrate an awareness of the role Islam can play in the life of a student, and their learning process
- Create a plan to support faith traditions of each student
- Develop strategies to ensure Muslim students can voice needs and ideas related to their education and learning

 Course Requirements:

To receive full credit for the course, participants must complete ALL assignments and respond to specific questions outlined in each assignment. Failure to complete all assignments will result in a disqualification in the course and a failing grade.

Other Course Information:

Getting Started

- After registering for the course, you will be sent an email with the website address, password and course key you need to access your online course, along with login instructions.
- Access each assignment through the course home page. All assignments will be submitted through the Moodle platform on each respective assignment page.
- Please save a backup copy of all course assignments and completed work.

Participation

- You are not required to be present (i.e. online) specific days or times. You will work at your own pace. The course is structured in 3 Weekly Units, however all assignments will not be due until the final day of the course.
- All responses will be posted online. Large documents, files, photographs or PowerPoint presentations may be attached as part of your response by using the “Submit A File” option.
- You may work collaboratively and submit similar responses on all assignments except for quizzes which must be done individually.

Research

GSA's are shown to be a best practice in reducing bullying and ensuring students feel safe and supportive in their schools and communities.

Supporting Muslim Students: A Guide to Understanding the Diverse Issues of Today's Classrooms

Laura Mahalingappa (Author), Terri Rodriguez (Author), Nihat Polat (Author)

Description: This book provides school professionals - including teachers, principals, counselors, psychologists, and administrators - with a practical guide for supporting Muslim students in PK-12 schools. It is important that school professionals are culturally responsive and understand students' backgrounds in planning effective instruction and creating safe schools. However, in the post-9/11 world, negative biases and stereotypes permeate mainstream discourses. Muslim students and their families often find themselves in conflict with school practices, procedures, and policies and do not often find themselves represented in the curriculum. This book provides a practical guide to the important issues that may impact the lives and education of Muslim students. This books give essential information about Islam and Muslim students from authentic perspectives.

Muslim Students, Education and Neoliberalism: Schooling a 'Suspect Community' (1st ed. 2017 Edition)

Máirtín Mac an Ghail (Editor), Chris Haywood (Editor)

Description: This edited collection brings together international leading scholars to explore why the education of Muslim students is globally associated with radicalisation, extremism and securitisation. The chapters address a wide range of topics, including neoliberal education policy and globalization; faith-based communities and Islamophobia; social mobility and inequality; securitisation and counter terrorism; and shifting youth representations. Educational sectors from a wide range of national settings are discussed, including the US, China, Turkey, Canada, Germany and the UK; this international focus enables comparative insights into emerging identities and subjectivities among young Muslim men and women across different educational institutions, and introduces the reader to the global diversity of a new generation of Muslim students who are creatively engaging with a rapidly changing twenty-first century education system. The book will appeal to those with an interest in race/ethnicity, Islamophobia, faith and multiculturalism, identity, and broader questions of education and social and global change.

Grading Rubrics for Individual Activities1 Introduction & 3 Discussions(40 points possible)

Discussion Forums are asynchronous ways to engage in class discussions. They require you to submit an answer to a question and respond to the posts of other peers. Because they are an integral part of sharing strategies, analyzing research, and sharing ideas, discussion forums in this course comprise a significant percentage of your final grade. It's highly recommended that you read and respond to more than the required two peer postings because greater participation will facilitate a greater depth of understanding. Additionally, it's important to make posts in a timely manner to benefit from peer responses.

Grading Rubric for Discussion Forums
		Points
Critical Thinking	Makes connections to the other content and real-life that are supported by reference(s) and example(s)	2
	Offers new ideas, connections, or applications	2
	Expresses and justifies personal opinion	2
Assignment Specific Criteria	Addresses all parts of the assignment, cites sources	2
Participation (Responses to at least 2 peer posts)	Responds to other posts (when available)	2
Total Points Possible		10

Final Assignment (25 points possible)

The final assignment is a critical part of this course. Participants must complete a two-page final assignment. The paper is meant to be a reflection as well as a chance to state what you will use going forward. The rubric below will be used to grade the final assignment, but additional details will be provided within the course.

Grading Rubric for Implementation Plan
