

Hello Friends of the Villa!

Just a quick update on what's new at Villa Appalaccia Winery this month. We're happy to announce our return to local events - specifically, wine festivals! Look for us Saturday, April 2 at the Stuart Wine & Beer Festival from 12:00 - 4:00 at the Stuart Farmer's Market (320 Chestnut Avenue). Then on Saturday, April 23 we will once again be pouring wine at the Blacksburg Fork & Cork from 1:00 - 6:00 at Historic Smithfield, 1000 Smithfield Plantation Road. We look forward to getting back into the community to support these local events. More to come. But not to worry, the winery will remain open during events so you can come and see us at either location.

Looking for something new to satisfy your cravings? Coming soon, a new addition to our menu...PANINIS! The creative talents here are coming up with some fresh grilled sandwich ideas just for you. Of course we must mention our new chocolate cheesecake. It's rich and creamy with a dark cookie crumb crust, and it's pretty fantastic with Raspberry Taxi too.

Don't forget our Live Music Saturdays and Pizza Sundays will begin in May and run through October. Watch for yoga sessions to begin when the weather gets a little warmer too. So much to look forward to here at the Villa.

As always, for the latest Villa Appalaccia updates, please visit our website, FaceBook or Instagram.

Cheers,

Tim & Julie Block
Villa Appalaccia Winery