

FREDDY KOEGLER

AVIATION PROFESSIONAL

---

Commercial Pilot
Certified Flight Instructor - CFI Airplane, CFI & CFII
Helicopter
Multi-engine, Single Engine Instrument Airplane, Helicopter
Instrument, Mi-8 & SK-65 Type Ratings
Single Engine Sea

Bachelor of Science - Cal State L.A. Aviation program
Master of Aeronautical Science - Embry Riddle

ABOUT

---

Freddy is a long time Eastern Sierra mountain pilot, first earning his Private Pilot in 1990 at Mammoth Airport and subsequently flying for many years around Yosemite and the Sierras. He is a 27 year U.S. Air Force Command Pilot veteran with 4,500 hours in over 9 different types of Military and Civilian helicopters and countless varieties of Single and Dual engine props

Military aircraft Flown:

- Bell 212 Rescue "Huey"
- MH-53 PaveLow Special Ops Helicopter
- Afghan Air Force Mi-17 "Hip" Helicopter
- Commanded and flew Air Force VIP Hueys in Washington DC for members Congress and Senior Military leadership
- T-37 Tweet Jet

In addition to numerous flying adventures in the Western U.S. he completed 5 Combat deployments flying U.S. Special Operations Forces in Iraq along with training Afghan pilots on Russian Mi-17 Helicopters in Combat.

Additionally flew helicopter Mountain Rescue for the Air Force Survival School in Washington State, trained new USAF pilots in New Mexico and flew our Nations most important VIPs in the National Capital Region, Washington D.C.

Before relocation to Mammoth Lakes, he most recently flew Part 135 tours in the MD-500 "Magnum" helicopter and in the Bell 407 around the Hawaiian Islands as well as Fixed wing flight instruction on Oahu.