

COMMERCIAL KNOWLEDGE WRITTEN PREPARATION COURSE

CLASSES BI-MONTHLY

Program: 3-Day Comprehensive Mid-Week Course.

Facilitated by Advanced Flight Instructor with extensive knowledge of FAA regulatory and airman's certification standards (ACS).

Course fee: $490 (not including *knowledge exam fee – approved test center)

FAA approved training manuals recommended for purchase prior to ground school. (not included in course fee)

*Knowledge exam endorsement provided upon successful quiz completion.

Course content

- Aerodynamics (Advanced Principles of Flight)
- Aircraft Performance and Weight & Balance
- Airplane Operations (Incursions)
- FAA Regulations (compensation and hire implications)
- Navigation (Pilotage and Dead Reckoning) with emphasis on airspace and diversions.
- Weather Theory (advanced)
- Weather Services
- Medical Factors and Aeronautical Decision Making
- Human Performance and Night Flying
- Risk Management & Mitigation

Requirements for Ground School

E6B Navigation Computer, Electronic AND Manual

Navigation Plotter

Pencils, pens and note pad

Standard Calculator

Itinerary

Daily itinerary including subject area breakdown, lesson quizzes and breaks provided after receipt of class reservation and fee*. (*fee can be paid on day one of selected class)