MESSAGE FROM OUR FOUNDERS

Dear Simon,

We are deeply grateful for your generous support toward our ministry. Your contributions have brought hope and transformation to many lives, from the children at Home of the Good Shepherd and unreached areas, who now experience love and care, to the dedicated leaders growing through our pastors' school, and the young minds thriving at Little Lambs Academy. Each area you support is a testimony of God's faithfulness through you.

Your impact also extends to our agriculture department, where families are being nourished and empowered toward sustainability. Thank you for standing with us. Your kindness is changing lives, and we pray God's abundant blessings over you and your families.

Thank you for making miracles happen! Thank you for being a faithful partner in transformation! God bless you!

From,

Bishop Simon Mwaura.

MISSIONS TO THE UNREACHED

The Struggle to Bring Samburu's Children Back to School

In the Samburu community, herding is more than just a responsibility, it is a deeply rooted tradition, passed down through generations. In the Samburu County Nkalup Vision (SCNV) preschools, this is painfully evident. Young boys, traditionally expected to be family herders, are pressured to skip school, and now, more girls are taking on this role as well.

HOME OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (HOTGS)

A Journey of Grace and Grit!

My name is Jacob Maina, I was born on June 5th, 2002, in the Menengai region of Nakuru County, Kenya. My arrival into this world should have been a celebration, but fate had other plans. Just six months after my birth, on December 28th, 2002, my mother succumbed to tuberculosis. Her death left a void in my life that nothing could ever fill. I was too young to understand loss, but I would grow up feeling its weight every day.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

A Break Away: From Bondage to Purpose

What would you ask someone who has served time in prison? Would you focus on their experiences or the circumstances leading to their imprisonment? People have mixed feelings about prisoners, seeing them as either deserving of their fate or victims of a flawed system. For Pastor John Lecher, imprisonment meant more than losing freedom; it sparked a profound transformation in his life.

LITTLE LAMBS ACADEMY

A Future Brightened: A Father's Dream Fulfilled

Deep in the heart of Samburu, where young boys are expected to herd cattle and education is rarely prioritized, one father dared to dream differently for his son. Pastor Joseph Lesiamito of the GGFAN Nkeju e Muny church, despite having dropped out of school in grade three due to cultural barriers and financial struggles, held onto a vision that his son, Lochami Lesiamito, would have a better chance at life through education.

AGRICULTURE

How Farming Transformed Lives in Shamata

Shamata is one of the most fertile areas in Kenya. The name 'Shamata' is derived from "Shumata," a Maasai tribe name meaning land in the clouds or God's residence. This is because the area has a very high altitude where the hills seem to make contact with the clouds. In 2009, GGFAN arrived in Shamata with a mission, not only to plant churches but also to bring positive change to the community. That's when Bishop Simon Mwaura met Kepha Kamau, a man who loved God and worked as a small-scale farmer.
