

Bruce Chase

LeTourneau

Assistant Chief Flight Instructor

My parents were missionaries working in radio. I grew up in Korea and the Philippines.

After high school, I attended LeTourneau University with thoughts of becoming an airline pilot. However, God directed my steps to instruction and I have been teaching at LeTourneau for 21 years. I teach in the classroom and in the airplane.